Route 188 Resurfacing In City Limits Planned

Circleville City Council Tuesday passed legislation enabling the State Department of Highways to advertise for bids for paving Route 188 within the corporate limits.

The legislation involved two ordinances. The first appropriated $6,751.36 from the unappropriated money of the state highway improvement fund and transferred it to the major street reconstruction account.

These funds are earmarked to be spent only on state highways within the city limits.

The second ordinance, basically legislation of cooperation which outlined what the city's responsibilities would be, did not pass quite so easily.

BOTH pieces of legislation were discussed during a recess. When the second was presented, Councilman Robert Kenworthy moved it be held to a second hearing since there were sections he did not understand. His motion was seconded by Harold Hoffman.

Councilman David Crawford objected, noting the state officials had asked the legislation be passed as quickly as possible so bids could be advertised. Crawford said that by not acting the city might miss out on getting the street paved this year by the state.

Council then passed over any further action until the rest of the city business was completed. At the end of council it was brought up again by Mayor Frank Barnhill.

Barnhill reported the ordinance was prepared by the state highway department and was "hand carried" by Joe Rooney, and presented to the mayor. According to Barnhill, Rooney said he would be back Wednesday to pick up the legislation, stressing the importance of early passage so the state could begin advertising for bids.

Councilman Crawford then asked Kenworthy what sections of the ordinance he did not understand. Crawford explained the ordinance had been read and approved by William Stevenson, legal counsel for the city. Kenworthy said the portion of the ordinance he wanted to study further concerned prohibiting parking at all times from Pleasant Street to Northridge Road on Court Street, and from Court Street to the corporation line on Northridge Road.

Atwood Jones, director of public service, told council this constituted no change in the present use of the road. He also said that if parking were permitted on the portion in question, the city would have

City To 'Condemn' Sewer Plant Site

A resolution declaring the city's intent to appropriate land from Container Corporation of America for a sewage disposal plant site was passed Tuesday.

The resolution is a step taken by the city to speed up the acquisition of 61.5 acres owned by CCA where the city has decided to build its new sewage treatment plant.

The land is west of the Scioto River and is bounded on all sides by either private property, State Canal Lands or the river. The city will have to purchase additional land to acquire access to the property.

CCA officials and the Circleville Department of Utilities have already agreed on the purchase and a price. However, Utilities Director Charles Taylor says that CCA has attached restrictions to the purchase which the city cannot agree to.

ONE of the restrictions says the city cannot use the property for any purpose other than a sewer disposal plant. Taylor says that although there are no plans for using the property for any other purpose, the restriction is unreasonable.

Other restrictions which Taylor maintains the city cannot agree with concern the abandonment of present sewage treatment plant site on ground leased from Container and a deadline for the city to leave the present site.

The public utilities director says it may take up to five years to complete the new sewage treatment plant. In the meantime, the city is not licensed to discharge treated wastes into the Scioto River and is constantly in danger of having the water pollution control board take action against the city.

An inspection of the treatment plant was held in February and found to be deficient in several areas. The state Board of Health recommended that at no

Man Faces Life Term

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Louis Taylor, 17, will be sentenced Monday to life in the Arizona State Prison on conviction of setting a fire in a hotel which killed 28 persons.

Taylor was convicted of 28 counts of first-degree murder Tuesday by a Maricopa County Superior Court jury of eight men and four women. Pima County Public Defender Howard Kashman said he would appeal the verdict.

"I'm not guilty... I'm not guilty," sobbed Taylor as the verdict was read to complete a six-week trial, moved from Tucson on a change of venue.

Judge Charles Hardy ordered Taylor's $5,000 bond revoked and the youth was taken to the Maricopa County jail.

During the trial Robert Jackson, 17, testified that Taylor told him he set the Dec. 20, 1970 fire at the Pioneer International Hotel in Tucson by squirting lighter fluid on walls and igniting it.

McGovern, McCarthy Also-Rans

CHICAGO (AP) — Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, claiming in victory that he'll keep winning now, held a big lead over Sen. George McGovern today as the ballots were counted in their contest for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Muskie easily outdistanced Eugene J. McCarthy to win as expected Tuesday in an Illinois presidential preference primary, polling 63 per cent of the vote.

A slow count of the long ballots in the delegate selection contests, where Muskie also was favored, left in doubt the final lineup in the Illinois delegation. But it was clear the Maine senator would emerge with a substantial margin over McGovern.

The delegate contest was really 24 contests, with the 160 convention seats apportioned among Illinois congressional districts.

With 75 per cent of the 10,858 precincts counted, delegates committed to vote for Muskie's nomination led for 60 convention seats, McGovern entries for 14.

But there were more uncommitted delegates, 86, leading than the two campaigners could claim between them.

And that was about the only thing that went right Tuesday for Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley, who will lead the uncommitted bloc when the Democrats convene July 10 in Miami Beach, Fla.

Daley's Chicago Democratic organization was jolted when two insurgents beat his chosen candidates to win nominations for governor and state's attorney.

"The people have spoken," said Daley. "It's always a good thing when the people speak."

In the presidential preference vote, with 95 per cent of the precincts counted, these was the totals:

Muskie 722,930 votes, or 63 per cent.

McCarthy 420,222 votes, 37 per cent.

"We're going to keep on winning, through all the primaries, through the Democratic National Convention and across the entire nation next November," said Muskie. "This is the message that the people of Illinois have just sent across the nation."

The Maine senator got off to a faltering campaign start, with a 46.4 per cent victory showing in the New Hampshire primary, and a battering in Florida, where he ran fourth and got only 9 per cent of the vote.

Muskie said Illinois gave him "a clear cut victory."

Dollar Value Cut Passed By Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress has finished action on a bill to devalue the dollar by 7.89 per cent by raising the price of gold from $35 to $38 an ounce, the first change since 1934 in the gold content of the dollar.

The House passed the bill 342 to 43 Tuesday, sending it to President Nixon who is expected to sign it as part of his effort to curb the economy.

The bill merely formalizes actions taken already by this country and its trading partners in devaluing the dollar against other countries' currencies.

The formal action, however, was one of the obligations the United States took on at the Smithsonian conference on international monetary policy last December.

In approving the measure, the House rejected an effort to repeal the 38-year ban on private ownership of gold and trading of gold bullion by U.S. citizens.

Democratic handlers of the bill, as well as the Nixon administration, opposed restoration of private rights in gold until the monetary situation is less likely to be disrupted by speculation.

U.S. Meddling In Chile Aired

Alleged Memos From ITT Bared

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department authorized the U.S. Embassy in Chile to do its best to keep leftist President Salvador Allende from taking power in 1970, according to a secret memo attributed to two officials of the International Telephone & Telegraph Corp.

The memo, a copy of which was released by columnist Jack Anderson, lists its authors as Hal Hendrix and Robert Berrellez, who purportedly were sent to Chile by ITT to report to the firm on political developments following Allende's election in September 1970.

Even days after Allende's election, the memo said, U.S. Ambassador Edward Korry "received a message from the State Department giving him the green light to move in the name of President Nixon."

"The message gave him maximum authority to do all possible—short of a Dominican Republic-like action—to keep Allende from taking power," the memo said.

Korry resigned his post in 1971 and now works in Washington as a consultant for the Overseas Private Investment Corp. He was not available for comment Tuesday.

Allende did not win a majority in the election, and the contest was to be decided by the Chilean congress. At the time the memo was dated, Sept. 17, 1970, anti-Communist forces in Chile were seeking to line up support for Allende's closest competitor in the three-way race, conservative Jorge Alessandri.

The memo was one of several dozen released by Anderson. He claims they were written by ITT officials during the critical period leading up to the inauguration of the Marxist president.

The memos do not spell out the extent of any U.S. involvement in the alleged effort to prevent Allende from taking power.

Helicopter Crash Fatal To 6 GIs

SEOUL (AP) — Six American soldiers were killed and two were seriously injured Tuesday when a U.S. Army CH47 helicopter crashed about 130 miles southeast of Seoul, the U.S. Army announced.

The helicopter was from a unit based in Pyongtaek, 70 miles to the north, and was on a routine flight, the Army said. The crash occurred about a mile southeast of Seoul, the near Waegwan. An investigation team was on the scene.

Sheriff Dan Tehan declined to name the woman, but said she was an acquaintance of one of three prisoners who planned the escape.

The gun was passed to trusty William Butts, 26, who took possession of the jail office and arsenal. The escapees took nearly $1,000 in other inmates' money from a safe before leaving, Chief Deputy Harry Culler said.

Arthur Thomas Tarpley, 23, the first prisoner recaptured, went free on five years probation for burglary Tuesday after Hamilton County Common Pleas Court Judge Gilbert Bettman was told Tarpley had been "cooperative" in telling them details of the escape. Morton's Mind Remains Open On Pipeline

Several Options Being Studied By Interior Chief

WASHINGTON (AP) — Interior Secretary Rogers C. B. Morton says his mind is still "wide open" on the proposed trans-Alaska oil pipeline.

If anyone applied to build a pipeline through Canada to the Midwest instead of through Alaska to a tanker port, Morton said Tuesday, "we would have to consider it as a possible choice" also.

The Alyeska Pipeline Service Co., a consortium of seven oil companies, is seeking permits to build the line from Prudhoe Bay on the state's North Slope to the ice-free port of Valdez on the Alaskan south coast.

Morton said Tuesday he has no indication anyone else is planning an alternate application.

Although he must recommend action, Morton said, the final decision on the pipeline will be up to President Nixon. Morton said he wants to consult with the President's staff and the Office of Management and Budget before bringing recommendations to Nixon.

Morton has stated he will not announce a position for at least

South Viets Claim Major Win In Cambodia; Doubted

SAIGON (AP) — The South Vietnamese announced today that the first phase of their drive into eastern Cambodia has ended after 12 days, 743 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong were killed and 23 were captured.

The Saigon command said its forces also captured or destroyed 38 heavy weapons, 1,109 rifles, a large quantity of ammunition, 544 tons of rice, 48½ tons of salt and four trucks. Eight South Vietnamese soldiers were killed and 65 wounded, a communique said.

The lopsided claims aroused suspicion that enemy losses were being inflated while sizable South Vietnamese casualties were being swept under the rug, a common practice on both sides.

The South Vietnamese said the second phase of the spoiling campaign to reduce the enemy's war capabilities is now under way. A 2,000-man South Vietnamese task force crossed the border today toward the town of Krek, opening a new front.

Spearheaded by 30 armored vehicles, the task force raised to about 10,000 the number of South Vietnamese troops operating 10 to 15 miles across the border in search of North Vietnamese bases.

There were no reports of major contact with the enemy in the first hours of the new drive 85 miles northwest of Saigon.

North Vietnamese troops reportedly have moved south into the Krek area since early January when the South Vietnamese abandoned permanent bases there in favor of mobile task forces.

The South Vietnamese dry season campaign into eastern Cambodia was launched March 10, and most of the Saigon forces are concentrated about 25 miles southwest of Krek, sweeping through a Communist base area that South Vietnamese field officers say is a major supply depot for three North Vietnamese divisions operating against both South Vietnamese and Cambodian forces.

Congressional Opposition Darkens Antibusing Hopes

WASHINGTON (AP) — A closer look at President Nixon's antibusing proposals by House and Senate members has dimmed chances for prompt congressional action.

Opponents and supporters of busing are finding fault with the President's program. The prospect now is for full-scale hearings and long floor fights on the legislation.

But strong opposition from civil-rights groups and a lack of enthusiasm for the proposal by several members of Congress are slowing the administration's push.

AFL-CIO President George

Meany issued a statement Tuesday calling Nixon's moratorium proposal "a cynical attempt to reward those who said 'never,' and to undermine the moral leadership of those citizens who endeavored to comply with the Constitution and the Supreme Court's 1954 decision."

Meany noted that Nixon in 1970 vetoed two bills increasing federal school aid.

"Now the President is back on national television trying to convince the American people that he has changed his opinion on improving the educational opportunities of disadvantaged children," Meany said. "This is political chicanery."

Clarence Mitchell, Washington representative of the NAACP, vowed an all-out fight against the Nixon program in a telegram Tuesday to Sen. Claiborne Pell, D-R.I., chairman of the Senate conferees.

Mitchell withdrew the NAACP's support for the administration's $1.5-billion desegregation bill, which is part of the Nixon proposal and is included in the legislative package before the conference committee.

Murder Suspect Apprehended In Richmond, Ind.

PIQUA, Ohio (AP) — Miami County sheriff's deputies today brought back Winford John Conley, 48, of Lewisburg, to face a first-degree murder charge in the death of William Rue of Bradford.

Paul Chambers, 43, of New Lebanon, Ohio, gave himself up Tuesday to face similar charges.

The body of Rue, 60, was found in his home a week ago. He had been tied, beaten and shot.

Conley was arrested Tuesday in Richmond, Ind., and waived extradition.

Seek Woman Who Furnished Escapees Gun

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Hamilton County sheriff's office today launched a search for an unidentified woman who supplied the gun used by inmates of the Hamilton County Jail to break out Monday night.

Sheriff Dan Tehan declined to name the woman, but said she was an acquaintance of one of three prisoners who planned the escape.

"This could happen anywhere," said the sheriff of the escape by 24 felons. Nine have been recaptured, leaving 15, two of them accused of murder, at large.

The sheriff said he learned the escape had been planned for some time, but that the gun did not arrive until Monday afternoon.

The sheriff said David Bell, 23, of Dayton, Ohio, lowered a bedsheet from a sixth story window in the jail. The "woman," at a window below on the fifth floor, tied a .22-caliber revolver to it and Bell pulled it up.

The gun was passed to trusty William Butts, 26, who took possession of the jail office and arsenal. The escapees took nearly $1,000 in other inmates' money from a safe before leaving, Chief Deputy Harry Culler said.

DuPont Waste To Chillicothe Landfill Dump

Chillicothe City Council disregarding recommendations of both the Ohio and Ross County Departments of Health, will allow the Chillicothe DuPont Plant to deposit its solid waste — mostly Mylar — in that city's landfill.

For the dumping privilege, Chillicothe is expected to receive an additional $20,000 yearly revenue from DuPont. The Barthelmas landfill, Route 104, had been receiving the waste.

One of the complaints on the polyester-like waste's disposal is that, if not immediately covered, it is subject to blowing.

The Ohio Health Department's main complaint about Ross County disposal of the mylar was that the compaction was spongy, barring future construction on the landfill site after it is abandoned.

Mayor Clark Alexander said the current site of the Chillicothe landfill will be moved. The city disposes of waste at the base of Mt. Logan range which is being considered as a possible State Seal State Park.

The secretary said it might be possible to grant pipeline permits in time for construction to begin this year, but if that were the decision it would have to await the lifting of a federal court injunction.

The Interior Department Monday issued a nine-volume environmental — impact statement on the pipeline proposal. The statement was required to satisfy the injunction won in 1970 by three environmental-protection groups.

Asked if he has drawn any general conclusions from the weighty document, Morton said, "No, I haven't yet. I'm still studying it myself."

He said he thinks the department "will be ready in a couple of weeks" to discuss the matter with Nixon's staff, the Office of Management and Budget, and then Nixon himself.

An ordinance authorizing the director of public service to advertise for bids for a vacuum leaf loader to replace the one presently owned by the city was held to a first reading.

COUNCIL BRIEFS
Attorneys William Duckworth and William Stevens, Canal Winchester, employed by the city to serve in the capacity of legal counsel, were both present last night at council.

Councilmen Keith Wagner, David Crawford, Ben Gordon, Gladden Troutman and Bob Kenworthy were present. Councilman David Goldschmidt was absent. Also present were council president Joe Bell, clerk Robert Shadley, safety director Ed Ebert, service director Jones, Fire Chief Bernard Wolfe and Public Utilities Director Chuck Taylor.

Gladden Troutman said he had recently received a call from a lady in his ward complaining of trash and the generally unsightly appearance of a neighbor's yard and again asked council to consider a cleanup-pickup campaign for the entire city.

Mayor Frank Barnhill read two letters he had recently received. One was from a man in McComb who was planning to take a canoe trip from Circleville to Portsmouth on the Scioto River in June. The letter asked about the level of the river during June and the number of dams that would be encountered along the route and other conditions. The mayor said that if anyone knowing the condition of the river would contact him, he would relay the information on.

The second letter was from a gardner in Batavia, requesting seeds of the variety of the large yellow squash exhibited at Pumpkin Show. The mayor, a veteran associate of the show, said the request will be honored promptly.

The mayor also announced that he had proclaimed April as Industrial Safety Month in Circleville, at the request of the Industrial Commission of Ohio.

Auto Trio Are In CCC Crash

Three cars collided Tuesday afternoon on the CCC Highway, causing damage but slight injuries to two of the drivers.

The collision, at 4:30 p.m. yesterday less than a mile south of the Franklin County line, brought injury complaints from 41-year-old Paul Bowen, Columbus and James Charles Clark, Grove City. The third driver, Willie York, 52, of Washington C.H., escaped the crash without harm.

Highway Patrolmen investigating the accident cited Bowen for failure to keep assured clear distance ahead when he struck the rear of a northbound vehicle driven by Clark who had stopped in the road for another car making a left turn. The impact tossed Clark's vehicle on its side and slid it left of center into York's car.

In six divisions, for boys age 8 through 13, Pickaway County boys walked away with honors. For the youngest age group — the eight year-olds — Jerry Womery accumulated 194 points for the first place. His score was later tallied as the highest for all age groups participating in the contest.

Other first place winners from here were Mike Whitten, 9-year-old division; John Schneider, 10-year -old division, Jeffrey Collins, 11-year-old division and Tim Fouch, 12-year-old division. Rick Allen placed second in the 13-year-old division.

There were over 150 boys participating, representing seven branches of the Columbus Metropolitan YMCA and the Pickaway County group. Each boy competed in the Pass, Shoot and Dribble Contest with other youths of his same age.

Jeff Collins also took first place in the 11-year-old division at the Ross County Optimist Club finals March 1. This earned him a place in March 4 state competition where he placed fourth.

Brooks-Yates Administrator Is Service Council Speaker

EDITOR'S NOTE — This report on the Pickaway Community Services Council was written by Red and Black staff writer Jackie Smallwood in a program arranged with the Council and the high school newspaper staff.

On March 14, a luncheon meeting was held of the Pickaway Community Services Council at the Pickaway Arms. Guest speaker was Jay Clevinger, administrator and workshop supervisor of the Pickaway County Program for Mental Retardation. Clevinger is also the editor of "Mental Retardation Abstracts," a professional journal of which he was previously the publisher.

Clevinger spoke on the need for a better understanding of mental retardation. He said that the mentally retarded need to be recognized as people and not classified as people with handicaps. He feels that they need to have normal experiences.

Clevinger's definition for mental retardation is "anyone who operates at a mental level below the expected for the person." He also stated that there is an attitude of apathy toward these people in the public schools. They are

Laurelville School Board Schedules Special Meeting

The Laurelville school board has called a special meeting 7 p.m. tonight at the school to discuss the possible revocation of their school charter by the Ohio Board of Education.

The meeting was requested by the board clerk to decide upon further action, which would include a requested hearing before the State body.

The special meeting is apparently the result of 85 Laurelville school district residents jamming the Hocking County School board meeting Monday night in which they were advised to ask their local board to seek the hearing.

The state board agreed March 13 to consider revoking the Laurelville charter due to its substandard educational environment.

ONE of the requirements stipulates that a minimum 45 courses must be offered high school students. Laurelville presently has only 38 courses listed on its curriculum.

The State Board suggested transferring the district to Logan Elm.

Their major complaint to such an alternative would be excessive busing of students the additional 11 miles from Laurelville to the Logan Elm school.

Another concern is that Laurelville students wouldn't have as much chance to participate in after-school activities.

Hocking County Superintendent James Frey indicated that Laurelville residents could

It also recommended that chemical treatment of effluent be initiated and the effluent be chlorinated. Taylor says that it is impossible to chlorinate the effluent.

It also recommended that excess sludge be hauled to an approved sanitary landfill or an approved farm field site.

TAYLOR said that last night's resolution is the first real step the city has taken toward construction of a new sewage treatment plant since he became associated with the Public Utilities Department in 1968. Originally the new plant was to have been completed in 1972.

A number of studies have been made during that time. The city and CCA at one time considered a joint treatment plant, but the idea was discontinued when CCA agreed to pay only 25 per cent of construction cost and 25 per cent of operating cost although it was recommended by the city's consulting engineer that the firm pay 50 per cent of the construction and 70 per cent of the operating.

CCA will now have to build its own treatment plant.

DuPont Waste To Chillicothe Landfill Dump

Chillicothe City Council disregarding recommendations of both the Ohio and Ross County Departments of Health, will allow the Chillicothe DuPont Plant to deposit its solid waste — mostly Mylar — in that city's landfill.

For the dumping privilege, Chillicothe is expected to receive an additional $20,000 yearly revenue from DuPont. The Barthelms landfill, Route 104, had been receiving the waste.

One of the complaints on the polyester-like waste's disposal is that, if not immediately covered, it is subject to blowing. Jerry Mowery, 8, Jackson; standing, Jeff Collins, 11, Pickaway Twp.; Jim Fouch, 12, McDowell Exchange and Rick Allen, 13, Circleville junior high.

Car Crashes Into Train At Main Street

Charles Tatman, 25, Route 1, Stoutsville, was uninjured 11:52 p.m. Tuesday when his car ran into one of 13 box cars being transported across the E. Main St. crossing of the Penn Central Railroad.

Tatman apparently didn't notice the flashing red lights or ringing bells at the crossing until he "was on top of" the box cars. He swerved to the left but crashed into the fourth box car. He swerved to the right and crashed into the fifth box car.

His car, which was traveling 35 miles per hour, sustained complete front end damage. Engineer of the train was W. C. McClurg, Lancaster.

Friday and a good supply remains for Thursday at the N. Court St. branch of Second National Bank.

GEN. Douglas MacArthur said "I shall return" 39 years ago when he left the Philippines during World War II. The 1972 edition of spring in Ohio followed much the same route Tuesday, although its doubtful if Australia is its resting place or it will stay away as long as he did.

Tuesday's high temperature of 73 in the early afternoon beat a hasty retreat to a cooler 59 at 5 p.m. and then dropped to a cold 37 by 7 a.m. this morning. There were even signs of snow and slippery roads in the northeastern part of the county about that time.

The weatherman expects it to continue colder throughout the week, anyway, dropping to the low 30's tonight with snow flurries likely tonight and tomorrow.

At least the extremely wet weather signifies spring didn't go very far away.

Brooks-Yates Administrator Is Service Council Speaker

EDITOR'S NOTE — This report on the Pickaway Community Services Council was written by Red and Black staff writer Jackie Smallwood in a program arranged with the Council and the high school newspaper staff.

On March 14, a luncheon meeting was held of the Pickaway Community Services Council at the Pickaway Arms. Guest speaker was Jay Clevering, administrator and workshop supervisor of the Pickaway County Program for Mental Retardation. Clevering is also the editor of "Mental Retardation Abstracts," a professional journal of which he was previously the publisher.

Clevering spoke on the need for a better understanding of mental retardation. He said that the mentally retarded need to be recognized as people and not classified as people with handicaps. He feels that they need to have normal experiences.

Clevering's definition for mental retardation is "anyone who operates at a mental level below the expected for the person." He also stated that there is an attitude of apathy toward these people in the public schools. They are

The Laurelville school board has called a special meeting 7 p.m. tonight at the school to discuss the possible revocation of their school charter by the Ohio Board of Education.

The meeting was requested by the board clerk to decide upon further action, which would include a requested hearing before the State board.

The special meeting is apparently the result of 85 Laurelville school district residents jamming the Hocking County School board meeting Monday night in which they were advised to ask their local board to seek the hearing.

The state board agreed March 13 to consider revoking the Laurelville charter due to its substandard educational environment.

ONE of the requirements stipulates that a minimum 45 courses must be offered high school students. Laurelville presently has only 38 courses listed on its curriculum.

The State Board suggested transferring the district to Logan Elm.

Their major complaint to such an alternative would be excessive busing of students the additional 11 miles from Laurelville to the Logan Elm school.

Another concern is that Laurelville students wouldn't have as much chance to participate in after-school activities.

Hocking County Superintendent James Frey indicated that Laurelville residents could

Easter Seal Record Hop Set Friday

Easter Seals will be given a younger image when youth groups from Pickaway County High Schools hold a Record Hop, Friday, 8 p.m. to 12 p.m. at the 4-H Grange Building at the Fairgrounds. The affair will be backed by the Pickaway County Easter Seal Society and all proceeds go toward the Easter Seal Campaign.

Students from the Pickaway County Schools, grades 7 through 12, are invited to attend. Chaperones will be Jim Fletcher, Guidance Counselor of Logan Elm High School and two deputies from the sheriff's office.

Tickets, either stag or drag, can be purchased at the door or from Beth Weiler, Circleville High; Kathy Jones, Sharon Carter, Karen Kellough and Patty Kibler, Logan Elm High and from the office at Teays Valley and Westfall High School.

A contest between schools having the largest number in attendance will be held and also a contest to select the best dancing couple. Refreshments will be served.

time for any reason should material from the plant's waste sludge lagoons be discharged into the Scioto River.

It also recommended that chemical treatment of effluent be initiated and the effluent be chlorinated. Taylor says that it is impossible to chlorinate the effluent.

It also recommended that excess sludge be hauled to an approved sanitary landfill or an approved farm field site.

TAYLOR said that last night's resolution is the first real step the city has taken toward construction of a new sewage treatment plant since he became associated with the Public Utilities Department in 1968. Originally the new plant was to have been completed in 1972.

A number of studies have been made during that time. The city and CCA at one time considered a joint treatment plant, but the idea was discontinued when CCA agreed to pay only 25 per cent of construction cost and 25 per cent of operating cost although it was recommended by the city's consulting engineer that the firm pay 50 per cent of the construction and 70 per cent of the operating.

CCA will now have to build its own treatment plant.

Spilling The Secrets

With the single stroke of a pen, President Nixon has done what no president in 20 years has attempted: signed an executive order designed "to lift a veil of secrecy" from government operations.

The order, apparently a direct result of the controversy over the Pentagon papers, establishes a complex system of classifying government documents. Beyond that no one, including members of the National Security Council staff, is certain what it will do.

The new procedures are designed to limit the number of persons authorized to classify documents. They are also expected to speed up declassification of existing documents.

The President gave an indication of the mountainous work load involved when he said the National Archives contain 160 million pages of classified material from World War II and 300 million pages dating from 1946 to 1954. Almost a half billion classified pages covering a span of only 13 years!

Critics in Congress already have said the presidential order does not go far enough. But the White House at least deserves credit for starting the declassification ball rolling.

Should Muskie Switch?

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

Can it be that Senator Edmund Muskie is about to ruin his chances for the Democratic Party Presidential nomination because, like many a strategist before him, he has been fighting the last war? The "kids" who had wrecked the chances of the Humphrey-Muskie ticket in 1968 by messing up the Chicago convention had bemused virtually all the Democratic aspirants (save Senator Henry Jackson alone) into thinking that it would be worthless to get their party's nod in 1972 unless the "left" could be placated.

So we have had Muskie, McGovern, Lindsay, Hartke and even Hubert Humphrey saying things that were calculated to keep the old Weathermen types from assaulting the causeways that lead from the Florida mainland to the summer convention site at Miami Beach. Meanwhile the Floridians, who might reasonably be permitted to police their own readily defensible causeways, went to the polls to serve notice that 1972 is not 1968. The "rightists" and the "centrists" won the primaries in both parties in Florida.

In this particular battle "General" Muskie, relying on advisers who were still fighting trench warfare in the epoch of planes and tanks, took an horrendous licking, finishing in fourth place in the Democratic race behind Wallace, Humphrey and Jackson. Nixon, of course, dominated the Republican primary, yielding just about ten per cent of the party vote to his only important challenger, John Ashbrook. Putting the Nixon, Wallace and Jackson vote together and reflecting that the Florida straw vote condemned compulsory school busing by a wide margin, it is obvious that the Floridians don't want any Democratic Party stand-in for Abbie Hoffman or Jerry Rubin, the Yippie field marshals of the Chicago 1968 debacle, to carry their banner next autumn.

What burns Representative John Ashbrook, the Republican contender who is trying to move Nixon a bit to the right, is that the Floridians approved his anti-busing, anti-big-spending, anti-centralizing policies without giving him more of a vote. (Maybe he got the maximum that his expenditure of $8,000 warranted in any realistic terms.) In any case, Floridians think that Nixon will see the busing situation as they do, if only to keep the Republican "right" everywhere from defecting to George Wallace.

The real victor in Florida was Scoop Jackson, who got his relatively moderate message on busing (no transfer of pupils, whether white or black, from a good school to an inferior school) across with sufficient emphasis to carry over into states that presumably will reject Alabama's Wallace for being too much identified with racism. If New Hampshire made Senator George McGovern a credible Democratic candidate with 37 per cent of the primary vote in a state where the busing issue means little, Florida has made Jackson viable nationally with a 13 per cent vote. Jackson, of course, is not quite as well-situated as Hubert Humphrey, who finished ahead of him, but Humphrey had name - identification - carrying over from 1968.

With its mixed demographic nature (transplanted wealthy Northerners on the southeast "Gold Coast," refugee Cubans from Castroland in Dade County, old-age pensioners from all over in St. Petersburg, native "Southerners" in the Panhandle, retired military men in Fort Myers, et cetera, et cetera), Florida is a "cross-section" laboratory capable of revealing many meanings. But, simply because the forthcoming primaries of Illinois (March 21), Wisconsin (April 4) and Indiana (May 2) are not in cross-section states, the only generally relevant application of a Florida message is that "leftism" is not a universal talisman for Democratic candidates.

If, as has been freely predicted, a hitherto quiescent

Eugene McCarthy is hoping to run off with Muskie's shirt in the Illinois primary, it might save Muskie if he were to fire his present advisers and get a wholly new general staff, one that would counsel him to move to the Jacksonian Democratic center. Being more in the middle wouldn't hurt Muskie in Indiana, either. As for Wisconsin, where a baker's dozen of Democratic hopefuls including Representative Patsy ("Pink") Mink of Hawaii will be cutting each other to pieces, there is no good way of preparing for the primary war except by seeming to be sincere.

If he is to revert to the center in a way that would re-establish him as a front-runner, Muskie must somehow prove that his recent leftism has been an aberration for which he should be held blameless. But how can an identified wobbler prove any such thing? It will take some doing. Scoop Jackson is under no such handicap.

TODAY In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Wednesday, March 22, the 82nd day of 1972. There are 284 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1765, the English Parliament passed the Stamp Act to raise revenue in the American colonies.

On this date: In 1622, some 350 Virginians were killed in the first Indian massacre of European colonists in North America.

In 1794, the U.S. Congress passed a law prohibiting American ships from supplying slaves to other countries.

In 1820, an American naval hero, Stephen Decatur, was mortally wounded in a duel with Commodore James Barron near Washington.

In 1917, the United States became the first nation to recognize a new provisional government in Russia.

In 1933, President Franklin D. Roosevelt signed a bill legalizing beer and wine with 3.2 per cent alcohol content.

In 1941, the Grand Coulee Dam on the Columbia River began producing electrical power.

Ten years ago: Right-wing French terrorists attacked government security forces in Algiers.

Five years ago: A high-ranking North Korean press official jumped into a U.S. car at the Panmunjon truce village and defected under a hail of Communist bullets.

One year ago: U.S. jets hit targets in North Vietnam for the second day in a row.

Clark County Dismissals Appealed

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Seven employees of the Clark County Engineer's department want the State Personnel Board of Review to get their jobs back.

The seven were fired by County Engineer Roger Borchers for making alleged statements to a state audit examiner.

Borchers declined to comment on the appeal.

He first suspended the seven for a week March 13, then fired them effective Monday. He told the employees he took this action because they "had tried to undermine the office of the engineer, its operation and the engineer himself."

The auditor's examination was critical of Borchers and his operation of the department, accusing him of "unethical and irregular practices."

This accusation hinged on contracts awarded the Urbana Tar and Asphalt Co. for road jobs in Clark County and Springfield Township.

The audit report said the company owed Clark County, Springfield Township and Champaign County $16,000. County authorities reported they were investigating recovery of the money and possible criminal charges.

THURSDAY'S HOROSCOPE

GENERAL TENDENCIES: One of your best days and evenings in some time to think out a course of action that can have breadth of vision to it that can bring you before the public or persons in high official or executive position. If you now compliment others and think in positive terms you will be able to gain the goodwill of all.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) You have wonderfully creative ideas today and can formulate plans for far into the future that will bring you success and happiness. Once you hit on right policy, go out and enjoy amusements of your choice. Show finest talents.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Your home and family mean much to you and this is a good day to bring more harmony and happiness in that vital realm of your existence. Keep promises you have made to kin. Plan for greater things in the future.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) This is an ideal day to gain the full cooperation of associates for some fine plans you have in mind. Buying and selling can be done wisely, efficiently. Don't neglect fixing your teeth or whatever else may be wrong with you.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Go after personal aims with vim and wisdom, and don't hesitate to ask others to introduce you to persons you want to know better. Take those charm treatments early. Being at your best is first rule of the day.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Get that advice you want in a confidential manner and then make good use of it. Plan for a happier and more prosperous future. Put more emphasis on the romantic side of your life and get right results.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Contact persons early with whom you want to have a social time later on, and get out to those delightful places for which you usually have little time. Some good friend has fine suggestions to make. Listen carefully.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Use your good hunches now to get responsibilities handled more quickly and accurately. An attachment is bored so find a good outlet for him or her to be self-sufficient. Stop taking abuse.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Know what your true position is with your partners and then cooperate more for mutual success in the near future. Take time for recreation with them later. This brings about good will that has been lacking for some time.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) If you use a new approach, you can get all that work behind you accurately in record time and will please co-workers as well. You need not travel far for the right new items to add to present wardrobe. Show you have good taste.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Get work done as early as you can so you are able to free time for social and other pleasures that appeal to you. Join congenials and be happy. You can find some new outlet that is most profitable, too.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY . . . he or she will be one of those wise individuals who will understand the emotions of others and would do well to take courses that lead into psychiatry, psychology and related professions. Then will be able to help humanity at large considerably. The fields of banking and business are also very good here, and much success is possible. Give the right ethical training early.

SINGAPORE (AP) — When an international newscaster referred to a Malaysian spokesman as "Mr. Inch," five million inches in Malaysia tittered in merriment for the rest of the week.

It was even funnier when at Bangkok airport, in neighboring Thailand, someone paged for "Mr. Tan Sri."

"Inche" means "Mister" and "Tan Sri" is an honorary title from the king in Malaysia. Both cases point out sharply that in Southeast Asia, there's plenty in a name.

For Malays, the name system is eminently useful. For example, if a man is named Dato Abdul Ibrahim bin Dato Haji Ishak, you immediately know: A man named Ishak went to Mecca and received honors from his sultan. He had a son named Abdul Ibrahim who was also royally feted but who hasn't yet made the pilgrimage.

But for foreigners, it's mind-blowing. Take Inche Mohammed Ismail bin Haji Ibrahim. He's Inche Ismail, Mr. Ismail or Ismail. You don't throw a dart and choose, you look for the name before the "bin," which means "son of."

If there's no "bin," it's a matter of deciding by placement. And you must always use the Datos, Tan Sris and Tuns which are knight-like titles, and, most certainly, the Tunkus and Tuankus which are royal.

In Thailand, someone might be named Surin Ruande. Like the Malays, his real name comes first: Surin. But unlike the Malays, his last name isn't his father's name—it doesn't mean anything.

A past king ordered Thais to have last names, and they simply picked at random. They took their village name, a name from a book or just a meandering collection of unpronounceable letters.

Indians in Southeast Asia, as in India, frequently use the names of gods. You don't call Hari Subramaniam either Hari or Mr. Subramaniam. You call him Maniam.

The Philippines offer some of the most colorful names. Spanish colonizers insisted all inhabitants take a Spanish-sounding surname. Villages were given a letter of the alphabet to choose from.

There are still settlements of Valencians, Valdezes, Vilalobos and Valenzuelas.

Traditional Chinese names have suffered a bit in Southeast Asia. Classically, the surname comes first with two pre-noms following. Hence, Mr. Lee How Fook is Mr. Lee.

But what about Robert Tan Chin Khoo? He's still Mr. Tan, but he's either Robert or Chin Khoo, depending upon whether he's talking to you or to his grandmother. Actually, to his grandmothers, he's probably "Ah Chin."

Filipino Chinese mix the Spanish past with their own ancestry and come up with names like Jesus Tan-Jess to his friends.

And, when you've really got the system down, you can try Vietnam, where the surname comes first or last, depending are more "Nguyens" than upon your latitude, and there Smiths in New York.

Speaking Of Your Health

By Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

I am 19 years old and I think I have contracted gonorrhea. I'm afraid that I'll be kicked out of my college if they find out.

I don't know what to do.

Mr. S. F., Wis.

Dear Mr. F.: As you know I have also answered this letter directly because of your urgent need for medical attention, I hope you have sought your doctor's advice, as I suggested.

I am repeating your question here because I think there are many other young men who are as confused as you are about venereal disease.

There now is a terrifying frequency, almost in epidemic form, of both syphilis and gonorrhea in young men and women. The devastating effects of both of these diseases, if untreated, come later in life.

It is heartbreaking to know that the chronic invalidism of so many elderly people can be traced to venereal disease contracted early in life, and untreated because of fears similar to those you express.

I doubt that any school would dismiss you because you have reported an illness to the health authorities.

Many young people are afraid to go to their doctor because they feel that their condition will be reported to their parents. This whole concept is fallacious. Doctors respect confidence and are more interested in the cure of a disease than in the social extensions of it.

Parents are not given enough credit for their understanding and helpful attitude to a child who has run into difficulty. Even those who are temperamentally inclined to react vehemently usually and finally come to the support of children who seek their help.

I must repeat: there is a virtual epidemic of venereal disease. It can be stopped only by health education in high schools and colleges, and more especially at home, in intimate conversation between parents and children.

I was given a vitamin injection in my buttock about four months ago. Since then I have had a shooting pain down my leg.

Could the nerve have been injured? I wonder, because there was a black-and-blue mark there for weeks after the injection.

Mrs. P. R., Ind.

Der Mrs. R.: I doubt that there is any relationship between the vitamin injection and the persistent pain you describe. It is hardly conceivable that a nerve could be injured in this way. Certainly, there is no relationship between the black-and-blue mark and the pain you now complain of.

Occasionally, a needle will strike a small blood vessel just beneath the skin, and cause it to bleed. The black-and-blue discolorations are due to seepage of this blood under the skin.

The Business World

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Everyone is concerned about the consumer today because the consumer has his hand in everything—and is, quite literally, forcing institutions to conform to his wishes. How can he be ignored?

Complaining to retailers, suggesting legislation to his congressman, boycotting products, contributing to groups that expose deceit in merchandising, and simply by turning his neighbor's mind, he translates anger into power.

Speaking at the Conference Board this week, Herbert Brunn, vice president-consumer affairs of RCA Corp., provided an insight into this phenomenon from the corporate viewpoint.

The complaint areas constituted only 15 per cent or 3,400 contacts, "such a small percentage of people who have our products, or use our services, that it is almost unmeasurable on a percentage basis."

But then this statistical fly-speck multiples into a sizable blemish. The people who take the trouble to contact you, said Brunn, represent a small number of your unhappy customers. The tiny figure is only a symbol.

The impact on the seemingly invulnerable corporation continues to rise if each unhappy customer influences two or three new buyers. "Your dissatisfaction index goes up very fast while your sales index moves in the other direction," Brunn noted.

But often there is still another escalation when the elected official or the one seeking office enters the picture and politicizes the problem either for selfish or altruistic ends.

Politicians are intuitively alert to such trends, said Brunn, who referred not just to product and service problems, but to a broad area of criticism of the business community for its alleged failure to respond.

The end result often is legislation or governmental pressure on industry, sometimes even after it has corrected the defect in its product or service or in its other relations with society.

Brunn notes a distinction between the old laws and the new ones that can have a profound effect on the climate in which business operates.

"More laws will be passed directed not to inducements to change business practices," he said, "but rather to penalties for failure to do so."

Spilling The Secrets

With the single stroke of a pen, President Nixon has done what no president in 20 years has attempted: signed an executive order designed "to lift a veil of secrecy" from government operations.

The order, apparently a direct result of the controversy over the Pentagon papers, establishes a complex system of classifying government documents. Beyond that no one, including members of the National Security Council staff, is certain what it will do.

The new procedures are designed to limit the number of persons authorized to classify documents. They are also expected to speed up declassification of existing documents.

The President gave an indication of the mountainous work load involved when he said the National Archives contain 160 million pages of classified material from World War II and 300 million pages dating from 1946 to 1954. Almost a half billion classified pages covering a span of only 13 years!

Critics in Congress already have said the presidential order does not go far enough. But the White House at least deserves credit for starting the declassification ball rolling.

Should Muskie Switch?

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

Can it be that Senator Edmund Muskie is about to ruin his chances for the Democratic Party Presidential nomination because, like many a strategist before him, he has been fighting the last war? The "kids" who had wrecked the chances of the Humphrey-Muskie ticket in 1968 by messing up the Chicago convention had bemused virtually all the Democratic aspirants (save Senator Henry Jackson alone) into thinking that it would be worthless to get their party's nod in 1972 unless the "left" could be placated.

So we have had Muskie, McGovern, Lindsay, Hartke and even Hubert Humphrey saying things that were calculated to keep the old Weathermen types from assaulting the causeways that lead from the Florida mainland to the summer convention site at Miami Beach. Meanwhile the Floridians, who might reasonably be permitted to police their own readily defensible causeways, went to the polls to serve notice that 1972 is not 1968. The "rightists" and the "centrists" won the primaries in both parties in Florida.

In this particular battle "General" Muskie, relying on advisers who were still fighting trench warfare in the epoch of planes and tanks, took an horrendous licking, finishing in fourth place in the Democratic race behind Wallace, Humphrey and Jackson. Nixon, of course, dominated the Republican primary, yielding just about ten per cent of the party vote to his only important challenger, John Ashbrook. Putting the Nixon, Wallace and Jackson vote together and reflecting that the Florida straw vote condemned compulsory school busing by a wide margin, it is obvious that the Floridians don't want any Democratic Party stand-in for Abbie Hoffman or Jerry Rubin, the Yippie field marshals of the Chicago 1968 debacle, to carry their banner next autumn.

What burns Representative John Ashbrook, the Republican contender who is trying to move Nixon a bit to the right, is that the Floridians approved his anti-busing, anti-big-spending, anti-centralizing policies without giving him more of a vote. (Maybe he got the maximum that his expenditure of $8,000 warranted in any realistic terms.) In any case, Floridians think that Nixon will see the busing situation as they do, if only to keep the Republican "right" everywhere from defecting to George Wallace.

The real victor in Florida was Scoop Jackson, who got his relatively moderate message on busing (no transfer of pupils, whether white or black, from a good school to an inferior school) across with sufficient emphasis to carry over into states that presumably will reject Alabama's Wallace for being too much identified with racism. If New Hampshire made Senator George McGovern a credible Democratic candidate with 37 per cent of the primary vote in a state where the busing issue means little, Florida has made Jackson viable nationally with a 13 per cent vote. Jackson, of course, is not quite as well-situated as Hubert Humphrey, who finished ahead of him, but Humphrey had name - identification - carrying over from 1968.

With its mixed demographic nature (transplanted wealthy Northerners on the southeast "Gold Coast," refugee Cubans from Castroland in Dade County, old-age pensioners from all over in St. Petersburg, native "Southerners" in the Panhandle, retired military men in Fort Myers, et cetera, et cetera), Florida is a "cross-section" laboratory capable of revealing many meanings. But, simply because the forthcoming primaries of Illinois (March 21), Wisconsin (April 4) and Indiana (May 2) are not in cross-section states, the only generally relevant application of a Florida message is that "leftism" is not a universal talisman for Democratic candidates.

If, as has been freely predicted, a hitherto quiescent

Eugene McCarthy is hoping to run off with Muskie's shirt in the Illinois primary, it might save Muskie if he were to fire his present advisers and get a wholly new general staff, one that would counsel him to move to the Jacksonian Democratic center. Being more in the middle wouldn't hurt Muskie in Indiana, either. As for Wisconsin, where a baker's dozen of Democratic hopefuls including Representative Patsy ("Pink") Mink of Hawaii will be cutting each other to pieces, there is no good way of preparing for the primary war except by seeming to be sincere.

If he is to revert to the center in a way that would re-establish him as a front-runner, Muskie must somehow prove that his recent leftism has been an aberration for which he should be held blameless. But how can an identified wobbler prove any such thing? It will take some doing. Scoop Jackson is under no such handicap.

Clark County
Dismissals Appealed

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Seven employees of the Clark County Engineer's department want the State Personnel Board of Review to get their jobs back.

The seven were fired by County Engineer Roger Borchers for making alleged statements to a state audit examiner.

Borchers declined to comment on the appeal.

He first suspended the seven for a week March 13, then fired them effective Monday. He told the employees he took this action because they "had tried to undermine the office of the engineer, its operation and the engineer himself."

The auditor's examination was critical of Borchers and his operation of the department, accusing him of "unethical and irregular practices."

This accusation hinged on contracts awarded the Urbana Tar and Asphalt Co. for road jobs in Clark County and Springfield Township.

The audit report said the company owed Clark County, Springfield Township and Champaign County $16,000. County authorities reported they were investigating recovery of the money and possible criminal charges.

The Business World

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Everyone is concerned about the consumer today because the consumer has his hand in everything—and is, quite literally, forcing institutions to conform to his wishes. How can he be ignored?

Complaining to retailers, suggesting legislation to his congressman, boycotting products, contributing to groups that expose deceit in merchandising, and simply by turning his neighbor's mind, he translates anger into power.

Speaking at the Conference Board this week, Herbert Brunn, vice president-consumer affairs of RCA Corp., provided an insight into this phenomenon from the corporate viewpoint.

The complaint areas constituted only 15 per cent or 3,400 contacts, "such a small percentage of people who have our products, or use our services, that it is almost unmeasurable on a percentage basis."

But then this statistical fly-speck multiplies into a sizable bluish. The people who take the trouble to contact you, said Brunn, represent a small number of your unhappy customers. The tiny figure is only a symbol.

The impact on the seemingly invulnerable corporation continues to rise if each unhappy customer influences two or three new buyers. "Your dissatisfaction index goes up very fast while your sales index moves in the other direction," Brunn noted.

But often there is still another escalation when the elected official or the one seeking office enters the picture and politicizes the problem either for selfish or altruistic ends.

Politicians are intuitively alert to such trends, said Brunn, who referred not just to product and service problems, but to a broad area of criticism of the business community for its alleged failure to respond.

The end result often is legislation or governmental pressure on industry, sometimes even after it has corrected the defect in its product or service or in its other relations with society.

Brunn notes a distinction between the old laws and the new ones that can have a profound effect on the climate in which business operates.

"More laws will be passed directed not to inducements to change business practices," he said, "but rather to penalties for failure to do so."

Native African Priest Visits LE High

By AMY WEST
On March 3, Rev. Bill Kiggen visited Logan Elm.
Rev. Kiggen is an ordained Roman Catholic priest from the Rift Valley in Kenya, East Africa. He has been attending Xavier University in Cincinnati for the past eight months, presently studying elementary and secondary education. This was the first time he had been invited to visit any high school in America.

Father Kiggen belongs to the Kipsigis tribe, who herd cattle and raise crops. The Kipsigis are blood brothers of the Masai, who herd cattle only. Father Kiggen has 12,000 people in his parish alone. A Volkswagen is the only means of transportation he has to get around to all of his people. He speaks six African languages along with Latin and English.

Rev. Kiggen has already established a small maternity hospital and a school for crippled children in Kenya. Formerly, no schooling was provided for cripples. When he returns to Kenya, he will not merely be a parish priest, but will have to teach his people how to build schools, staff them, and organize the curriculum.

In addition to school administration, Father Kiggen has studied community development, community action, and farm co-operatives. He hopes to learn much more about agriculture before returning to Kenya to teach his people the more advanced farming methods.

Secretary Always Busy At Her Job

By ALEX JONES
Have you noticed the little lady who always seems to be either talking or typing in the office or sometimes even both?

She is Mrs. Peggy Allen, Logan Elm's secretary. Mrs. Allen resides with her husband Roger and four children, Sheri, Scott, Oscar, and Timothy at Route 4, Circleville.

Mrs. Allen lists as her hobbies reading and watching football and basketball games. Her likes are food, good books, and friendly people. Her only dislike is the detention periods which she must monitor every day at noon.

The Logan Elm administration, faculty, and student body would like to thank Mrs. Allen very much for her assistance and patience.

Views On TV - Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — There is obvious interest in putting Ken Berry into a variety show of his own—and it's about time. The first move in that direction was "Wow" on NBC Monday night, primarily an hour showcase for the performer's dancing and singing talents, which are impressive.

The program was patently a pilot show. Several of the television stars who turned up for a few seconds at the beginning congratulated Berry on his "first show." Ken came off better than the show itself which was produced by Allan Blye and Chris Beards, who turn out "The Sonny and Cher Show" on CBS.

The program leaned heavily on spoofing old movies. The year, it seems, everybody spoofs old movies. The show was at its best in the dance numbers. A close second was a chase scene that looked like an updated Keystone Kop comedy.

Berry was dandy as a dancer and uncorked a surprisingly good baritone. One number in which he wandered around the stage singing "The Green, Green Grass of Home" and regretting his misspent life, was arch and stagey. Another number had everything from World War I to Vietnam fought in a symbolic bed by a married couple who were singing about happiness. It was earnest and obviously a sermon of sorts but didn't make any more sense than this description of it.

Berry, without dancing a step or singing a note, has had a good television career. For a couple of seasons he played a cavalry captain who kept tripping over his sword in "F Troop," an otherwise forgettable comedy Western, followed by several successful seasons in "Mayberry, R. F. D." when he took over from Andy Griffith.

"Wow" was ingenious in its use of special effects and cartoon inserts. It fell down in the comedy department.

It was preceded on NBC by a 60-minute special program made for young children, "Miss Pickerell." Adapted from some children's books, it was an imaginative piece and oddly tantalizing to the adult viewer.

Essentially, the hour was a device for a vicarious adventure that took the child viewer every place from the rocky surface of Mars to the bottom of New York harbor.

A program so completely child-oriented in prime time is unusual. Originally a program about Benjamin Franklin had been scheduled for the hour, but it was canceled on short notice by the sponsor when he found it indicated that the author of Poor Richard's Almanac was not exactly a saint in his private life.

Miss Pickerell and her adventures was apparently an emergency replacement.

'68 Frosh Now Seniors

By JEFF YOUNG
Freshmen have always been a curious lot. The freshmen of 1968 were no exception. They were the quiet, timid, withdrawn combination of students that a normal freshman class is made of.

The class was not just another mediocre freshman class, however. The 68 freshmen wasted no time in getting involved in school activities. They were found popping up in all sorts of activities from the bowling team to GAA and from Student Council to the Elm Log.

Some freshmen got right to work and made their mark early. Brad Barr became a member of Boys' Ensemble, while Shelley May and Kathy Hensley held their own on the Girls' Ensemble.

Amy West was given special recognition in the Central Ohio Junior Olympics by achieving first in the broad jump and second in the high jump.

In other sportsactivities, the freshmen were well represented. In baseball, Gary Wertman, Greg Strawser, Wirtie Teets, Steve Jones and Dane Conley gave fine efforts. Football saw the shadows of freshmen also with Gary Benner, Steve Jones, Don Dean, Steve Pusey, Wirtie Teets, Alex Jones and Brad Barr providing all the help they could.

In basketball (both freshman and reserve) freshmen presence was felt. Bob Brown and Steve Fischer were elevated to the reserve team and provided good speed to the offense and defense. The freshman basketball team in the meantime was on its way to the best season a freshman team had to date. This team was also the largest in number LE had ever seen, having 20 members.

Yes, freshmen have always been a curious lot. The freshmen in 1968 were of that same mold, but as they fit into that mold, so did they fit right in with the high quality of all Logan Elm students. These freshmen, embarking on the best time of their lives, contributed much to make their school the best school of all.

Shakespeare Play Seen By Students

By NEDRA DRESBACH

On March 7, the senior Advanced Composition class and Mrs. Nagy's freshman college prep, English students went to Otterbein College to see Shakespeare's "Romeo and Juliet."

The performance took place in Cowan Hall and was performed by the Otterbein College Theatre. A cast consisted of thirty-one people — twenty-nine of whom are students at Otterbein, and two professional actors presented the play. The professionals were Paul Jott who played Romeo and John Milligan who played Friar Laurence. The production was directed by Dr. Charles W. Dorrill.

Girls' Track Is Underway

By YVONNE COOPER
Girls' track practice began last Monday and will be held every night after school until the end of the season.

This year, several veteran runners will be returning as well as many freshmen. Those returning are: Seniors Susan Reichelderfer, Amy West, Theresa Kerns; Juniors Carla Hobble, Willa Martin and Sophomores Debbie Penwell, Lynda Sykes, Sandi Chambers, Jackie Jones, Janet Wolford, Helen White.

Freshmen on the team are: Chris Blankenship, Vicki Buskirk, Pam Martin, Hope Justice, Laurie May, Laura Kerns, Jan Feldman, Sandi Strawser, Nanci Cave, Karen Myers, Diane Gifford, Kim Parmer, Kathy Valentine, Joyce La Fontaine.

With a great deal of depth and experience, coach, Mrs. Suzanne Kulik, is anticipating a great season and possibly some record-breaking times.

Bus March Going Well, Woman Says

FREMONT, Ohio (AP) — "It has been much more difficult physically than I ever thought it would be," Irene McCabe said of her march to Washington to dramatize opposition to forced school busing.

"The pain has gone from my feet to my knees, but I know I'm going to make it," the Pontiac, Mich., housewife said Tuesday night as she rested in a motel 15 miles east of here.

Mrs. McCabe said a sound car playing marching music, sent by the mayor of Dearborn, Mich., joined the caravan of six women and three men in campers Tuesday.

"When your spirit starts to flag and your feet are aching, for someone to do something like this is very humbling," she said.

The women, members of National Action Group, traveled from the outskirts of Toledo and through Fremont Tuesday. Today they planned to get to Norwalk.

"It's coming along real well," Mrs. McCabe said. "We're right on schedule."

"The response has been overwhelming. It's so much more than I expected."

People have joined the marchers in the streets in every town the group has passed through, she said.

Dear Abby: His Scheme May Go Up In Smoke

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My husband is a farmer, and he is planning to plant some marijuana along with corn and other crops.

He says if he gets busted and goes to jail, he won't mind serving a year because he could make so much money off the marijuana, it will be worth it.

We have five kids, and things have been rough for us financially. I've told him I think he's foolish to take a chance, but he says he loves me, that's the reason he wants to get rich quick. Then he can give me and the kids a better life.

Abby, I don't like his idea at all, but he says if I love him I'd go along with it. I do love him, but I still can't. Any suggestions?

FARMER'S WIFE
DEAR WIFE: Your husband's get-rich-quick scheme could go up in smoke faster than he thinks. And he stands to serve a lot more than a year if he's caught. Tell him that if he loves YOU, he'll stick to corn and other crops, and forget the marijuana.

DEAR ABBY: A woman signed "Quietly Burning" complained because her husband always called her "Hey," or "Say, there."

I'll bet anything the husband was of Scandinavian descent. My husband never called me "Honey" or any other endearing name, and we have had over 40 years of the most successful marriage possible. He's a Swede, and Swedes are naturally very cold, unemotional and nonverbal. But once you thaw out a Swede, watch out!

MARRIED ONE
DEAR MARRIED: Okay, So exactly how does one go about "thawing out" a Swede?

DEAR ABBY: I am writing to correct the thinking of "George," who had qualms about his daughter's marrying a conscientious objector because in his views, a conscientious objector would not fight to protect his family.

A conscientious objector is one who, because of a deeply held moral or ethical code, or because of religious beliefs, cannot engage in any war without betraying the principles most influential in life. There is no requirement that he be completely nonviolent or unwilling to defend his family.

There is an enormous difference between defending oneself from personal attack, and participating in the indiscriminate mass killing

Chaplain In Trouble

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — The wife of a Navy commander has testified she fell in love and had an affair with her chaplain, who is charged with misconduct by committing adultery.

Lori Gudbransen took the stand Monday in the case of Cmdr. Andrew F. Jensen, senior chaplain at Cecil Field Naval Air Station.

Jensen is charged with conduct unbecoming an officer by engaging in illicit sex with two women.

The court-martial brought an unprecedented protest from Jensen's denomination, the American Baptist Convention, which decided to stop further assignments of ministers to the Navy.

Mrs. Gudbransen, a mother of two who is in her late 30s, said she rendezvoused with the 43-year-old Jensen in motels on May 18 and July 8 and visited the chaplain in his Cecil Field quarters on July 16 and 17.

MARRIED ONE

DEAR MARRIED: Okay, so exactly how does one go about "thawing out" a Swede?

DEAR ABBY: I am writing to correct the thinking of "George," who had qualms about his daughter's marrying a conscientious objector because in his views, a conscientious objector would not fight to protect his family.

A conscientious objector is one who, because of a deeply held moral or ethical code, or because of religious beliefs, cannot engage in any war without betraying the principles most influential in life. There is no requirement that he be completely nonviolent or unwilling to defend his family.

There is an enormous difference between defending oneself from personal attack, and participating in the indiscriminating mass killing and destruction of modern warfare, which finds most of its victims among innocent civilians, and drops bombs from six miles in the air with a killing range of a square mile defoliating and destroying food supplies.

I would be very happy if my daughter were to marry a conscientious objector, for it shows concern for humanity and conscience which can only help if human relationships, marital and every other. Yours,

LEONARD M. LAKE, HARRISON, N.Y.

DEAR MR. L.: Yours was only one of many, many responses echoing the same sentiments.

CONFIDENTIAL TO ROBERT P. IN N.Y.C.: Your cats are NOT homosexual. A true homosexual will, when given a choice, choose a partner of his own sex, but in the absence of his preference, he will "make do" with whatever is handy. (As some humans do.) Dr. Herman Salk is not in error. There are no four-legged gay cats!

What's your problem? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. Write to ABBY, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069. For a personal reply enclose stamped, addressed envelope.

Tax Funds Distributed

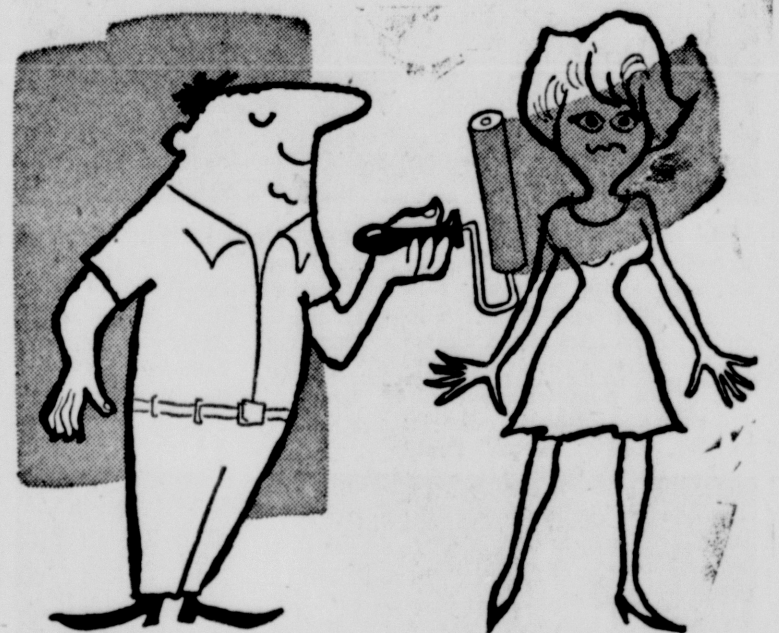

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's 88 county budget commissions have received nearly $11 million from the state's new income tax since January, State Auditor Joseph T. Ferguson said Tuesday.

The state auditor reported a distribution of $3.7 million to the counties, bringing the year's total to $10.9 million.

Under the income tax law, a total of $44 million is to be distributed annually to the county local government fund in 12 payments. Another $4 million a year, will be distributed to cities and villages having their own local income taxes.

The March distribution to Ohio's larger counties included: Cuyahoga $807,356; Franklin $291,994; Montgomery $215,034; Summit $199,469; Lucas $198,679; Lorain $99,851; Stark $97,359; Mahoning $87,696; Butler $85,612; Lake $71,399; Richland $46,134; Jefferson $44,040 and Clark $37,515.

FIRST AWARD — Miss Linnie Henn, on the left, is shown receiving the first silver tray award as the outstanding Volunteer of Pickaway County Red Cross this past year. Presenting the tray is Mrs. Gary Hinton, youth director.

American Red Cross Volunteers were honored in ceremonies Sunday evening at Community United Methodist Church. Virginia Johnson, president, was in charge of the arrangements.

Mrs. Gary Hinton, director of the Youth Program in Pickaway County, presented certificates to Toni Hill and Linnie Henn for completing courses offered by Pickaway County Red Cross.

As a special award, Youth pins were presented to four girls, each of whom have given more than 100 hours of service during the past year: Amy Grover, Linda Fosnaugh, Chris Hamilton and Cheryl Hutchinson.

Linnie Henn received the first annual award, a silver tray, as the outstanding Volunteer of the year. This was determined by her diligence in keeping her schedule, her appearance, attitude and participation in the courses offered by the Red Cross.

The Rev. Roy Osborn, pastor of Calvary United Methodist Church, was guest speaker. He complimented the girls for the many hours of service given to their community and said they benefitted themselves in showing concern for others.

Church Class Buys Chair For Nursery

Kingdom Seekers Class of the Nazarene Church held its March meeting recently at the Fellowship Center. The Rev. John Dennis opened the session with prayer.

Bob Tacy gave devotions from the "Living New Testament" with several different portions from the book of Ecclesiastes. Trading stamps were pledged to purchase a rocking chair for the nursery during a brief business meeting.

Class members, their guests and children played volleyball and were served pizza. Mr. and Mrs. Leland Watson with the assistance of several class members made the pizzas.

The next meeting will be a combination baked goods and white elephant sale for class members and guests.

Repeal Of Laws Against Private Marijuana Use Urged

By BROOKS JACKSON
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Commission on Marijuana and Drug Abuse today recommended repeal of all jail terms and fines for private pot smoking, but not for its cultivation or sale.

After a year's study, chartered by Congress, the conservative panel unanimously proposed a national policy of using "persuasion rather than prosecution" to discourage smoking of marijuana.

But it stopped short of recommending outright legalization, expressing the hope that marijuana is a fad that will lose favor if de-emphasized.

It said marijuana is far less dangerous than the American public thinks. It found little or no evidence that marijuana can kill, cause addiction, brain damage or birth defects, or lead to crime, violence or necessarily to more powerful drugs.

But it did find that long-term, daily use of marijuana by adolescents sometimes contributes to a general lack of motivation, concluded that anyone driving under the influence of marijuana is a serious threat to public safety and said that heavy, daily use over a number of years may cause some damage to heart and lungs.

"In general, we recommend only a decriminalization of possession of marijuana for personal use on both the state and federal levels," the commission said.

Specifically, it recommended — Elimination of fines and jail terms for smoking marijuana in private or possessing one ounce or less.

— Retention of felony penalties for growing marijuana, selling it for profit or possessing it with intent to sell.

— Fines of up to $100 for smoking in public, public possession of more than one ounce, or not-for-profit distribution of small amounts in public.

— Jail terms of up to 60 days and a $100 fine for disorderly conduct linked to public marijuana use or intoxication.

— Penalties of up to a year in jail, a $1,000 fine and suspension of operator's permit for driving a vehicle or operating any dangerous instrument while under the influence of marijuana.

— Classification of marijuana as contraband that could be confiscated by police wherever found outside the home, even if the possessor were not liable for criminal penalties.

The 13 commissioners were not unanimous in all their recommendations. Reps. Tim Lee Carter, R-Ky., and Paul G. Rogers, D-Fla., recommended noncriminal fines for possession of any amount of marijuana in public or in private. Former Illinois chief investigator Mitchell Ware recommended noncriminal penalties such as mandatory drug-education classes or civil fines. Sens. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., and Harold Hughes, D-Iowa, opposed making marijuana contraband and urged some other points in the direction of greater civil liberty.

There was little advance indication how the report would be received by President Nixon, who appointed most of the commission's members. He said he would ignore any recommendation to completely legalize marijuana but said Monday he thinks some penalties for possession are too harsh.

The commission's chairman, former Pennsylvania Gov. Raymond P. Shafer, appeared to anticipate a not-entirely warm welcome in his letter forwarding the 184-page document to Nixon and the Congress.

Shafer, a Republican, said the report attempts "to place in proper perspective one of the most emotional and explosive issues of our time."

"Whatever the facts are, we have reported them," he said. "Wherever the facts have logically led us, we have followed and used them in reaching our recommendations."

During its study the commission chartered more than 50 research projects, recorded thousands of pages of transcripts from formal and informal hearings in cities across the nation, including confidential sessions with marijuana users, and studied effects on long-term users in Jamaica, Greece, India and Afghanistan.

The commission sponsored a nationwide survey of beliefs and attitudes concerning marijuana. It found that an estimated 24 million Americans have tried the stuff, 8.3 million still use it and 500,000 use it at least daily.

In recommending decriminalization of marijuana use, the commission urged a scheme similar to that which existed for alcohol during Prohibition. During that era production or sale of alcohol was illegal, but only five states had penalties for personal possession of it.

The commission said it realized that Prohibition failed to discourage use of alcohol in America, but pointed out that the use of alcohol was far more widespread and deeply rooted in American culture before Prohibition than marijuana use is today.

The commission said it had rejected complete legalization of marijuana because that "would institutionalize availability of a drug which has uncertain long-term effects and which may be of transient social interest."

In other words, it said, marijuana may be a fad that will die out if robbed of its value as a symbol of youthful defiance. "On the basis of our findings," it said, "we have concluded that society should seek to discourage use, while concentrating its attention on the prevention and treatment of heavy and very heavy use."

How The Weather Looks

OHIO WEATHER SUMMARY
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Following is the Ohio weather summary from the National Weather Service:

A strong cold front moved across Ohio Tuesday night and this morning. Temperatures ahead of the front ranged in the 50s but fell sharply with passage of the front.

A deep low pressure center over the Great Lakes will move slowly into the state within the next day. Cloudiness and showers will prevail today as a result of the system.

Tonight the mercury will drop to near or below freezing. Snow flurries are expected Thursday in most sections, especially in the northeast.

Labor Members May Quit Pay Board In Protest

WASHINGTON (AP) — A majority of the five labor members on President Nixon's Pay Board reportedly is on the brink of quitting the board to protest White House wage-price regulations.

"We're closer to walking off the Pay Board than at any time since Phase 2 began," said one high source in the AFL-CIO, which has three members on the labor-industry-public board.

One Pay Board member, President Floyd Smith of the AFL-CIO International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers, said he is ready to vote at a labor summit meeting Wednesday to walk off the board.

A high source in the United Auto Workers said, however, that his union isn't ready to give up its seat on the Pay Board, and the Teamsters union also is reported reluctant to quit. The Teamsters and Auto Workers are not affiliated with the 13.6-million-member AFL-CIO. The five labor members previously have worked closely on Pay Board matters.

"I don't believe we're doing much good sitting there, and I don't think it would affect us very much if we left," Smith said of his desire that labor quit the Pay Board.

He said he believed the other AFL-CIO representatives on the Pay Board—AFL-CIO President George Meany and President I. W. Abel of the AFL-CIO United Steelworkers—share his view.

But a source close to Auto Workers President Leonard Woodcock said he does not think the labor members will resign from the Pay Board.

"I don't think that's going to happen. If we leave the board, we would get it in the eye worse," the source said.

The Auto Workers and Machinists unions suffered the first contract rejection when a majority of the 15-member Pay Board voted to order wage hikes for thousands of aerospace workers rolled back from about 12 per cent to roughly 8 per cent.

The latest Pay Board rejection ordered pay increases for 15,000 West Coast longshoremen reduced from 20.9 per cent to 14.9 per cent. That prompted Meany to call Wednesday's labor summit meeting.

Sources said Wednesday's meeting at AFL-CIO headquarters may also decide whether the longshoremen's unions will follow through on earlier hints to renew strikes on all coasts to protest the contract rejection.

Mrs. Gerhardt Graduates With Highest Honors

BARBARA GERHARDT

Mrs. George (Barbara) Gerhardt, Route 1, Stoutsville, graduated with highest honors from Southeastern Ohio School of Practical Nursing March 19 in Nelsonville-York High School.

She was one of 31 students awarded diplomas. 36 other students were capped.

John Light, President of Hocking Technical College, gave the welcome and Mrs. Lucille Cotner, director of Nursing at St. Mary's Hospital, was principal speaker.

Mrs. Gerhardt plans to work in Circleville for a year and a half and then return to college to work at becoming a registered nurse.

Powell's Illness Brings Lawsuit

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A Circuit Court judge has issued a restraining order forbidding Jackson Memorial Hospital from releasing the body or possessions of former congressman Adam Clayton Powell "in the event of his demise" pending determination of who is his legal wife.

Powell, 63, has been in critical condition at the hospital since last week. He was airlifted here March 7 by a Coast Guard helicopter from his Bahamian island retreat of Bimini.

Judge Jack A. Falk issued the order Monday after Yvette Diago Powell, the former congressman's third wife, filed suit alleging she was Powell's legal wife.

Repeal Of Laws Against Private Marijuana Use Urged

By BROOKS JACKSON
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Commission on Marijuana and Drug Abuse today recommended repeal of all jail terms and fines for private pot smoking, but not for its cultivation or sale.

After a year's study, chartered by Congress, the conservative panel unanimously proposed a national policy of using "persuasion rather than prosecution" to discourage smoking of marijuana.

But it stopped short of recommending outright legalization, expressing the hope that marijuana is a fad that will lose favor if de-emphasized.

It said marijuana is far less dangerous than the American public thinks. It found little or no evidence that marijuana can kill, cause addiction, brain damage or birth defects, or lead to crime, violence or necessarily to more powerful drugs.

But it did find that long-term, daily use of marijuana by adolescents sometimes contributes to a general lack of motivation, concluded that anyone driving under the influence of marijuana is a serious threat to public safety and said that heavy, daily use over a number of years may cause some damage to heart and lungs.

"In general, we recommend only a decriminalization of possession of marijuana for personal use on both the state and federal levels," the commission said.

Specifically, it recommended: —Elimination of fines and jail terms for smoking marijuana in private or possessing one ounce or less.

—Retention of felony penalties for growing marijuana, selling it for profit or possessing it with intent to sell.

—Fines of up to $100 for smoking in public, public possession of more than one ounce, or not-for-profit distribution of small amounts in public.

—Jail terms of up to 60 days and a $100 fine for disorderly conduct linked to public marijuana use or intoxication.

—Penalties of up to a year in jail, a $1,000 fine and suspension of operator's permit for driving a vehicle or operating any dangerous instrument while under the influence of marijuana.

—Classification of marijuana as contraband that could be confiscated by police wherever found outside the home, even if the possessor were not liable for criminal penalties.

The 13 commissioners were not unanimous in all their recommendations. Reps. Tim Lee Carter, R-Ky., and Paul G. Rogers, D-Fla., recommended noncriminal fines for possession of any amount of marijuana in public or in private. Former Illinois chief investigator Mitchell Ware recommended noncriminal penalties such as mandatory drug-education classes or civil fines. Sens. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., and Harold Hughes, D-Iowa, opposed making marijuana contraband and urged some other points in the direction of greater civil liberty.

There was little advance indication how the report would be received by President Nixon, who appointed most of the commission's members. He said he would ignore any recommendation to completely legalize marijuana but said Monday he thinks some penalties for possession are too harsh.

The commission's chairman, former Pennsylvania Gov. Raymond P. Shafer, appeared to anticipate a not-entirely warm welcome in his letter forwarding the 184-page document to Nixon and the Congress.

Shafer, a Republican, said the report attempts "to place in proper perspective one of the most emotional and explosive issues of our time."

"Whatever the facts are, we have reported them," he said. "Wherever the facts have logically led us, we have followed and used them in reaching our recommendations."

During its study the commission chartered more than 50 research projects, recorded thousands of pages of transcripts from formal and informal hearings in cities across the nation, including confidential sessions with marijuana users, and studied effects on long-term users in Jamaica, Greece, India and Afghanistan.

The commission sponsored a nationwide survey of beliefs and attitudes concerning marijuana. It found that an estimated 24 million Americans have tried the stuff, 8.3 million still use it and 500,000 use it at least daily.

In recommending decriminalization of marijuana use, the commission urged a scheme similar to that which existed for alcohol during Prohibition. During that era production or sale of alcohol was illegal, but only five states had penalties for personal possession of it.

The commission said it realized that Prohibition failed to discourage use of alcohol in America, but pointed out that the use of alcohol was far more widespread and deeply rooted in American culture before Prohibition than marijuana use is today.

The commission said it had rejected complete legalization of marijuana because that "would institutionalize availability of a drug which has uncertain long-term effects and which may be of transient social interest."

In other words, it said, marijuana may be a fad that will die out if robbed of its value as a symbol of youthful defiance. "On the basis of our findings," it said, "we have concluded that society should seek to discourage use, while concentrating its attention on the prevention and treatment of heavy and very heavy use."

How The Weather Looks

OHIO WEATHER SUMMARY

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Following is the Ohio weather summary from the National Weather Service:

A strong cold front moved across Ohio Tuesday night and this morning. Temperatures ahead of the front ranged in the 50s but fell sharply with passage of the front.

A deep low pressure center over the Great Lakes will move slowly into the state within the next day. Cloudiness and showers will prevail today as a result of the system.

Tonight the mercury will drop to near or below freezing. Snow flurries are expected Thursday in most sections, especially in the northeast.

FORECASTS

OHIO—Mostly cloudy and colder with a chance of snow flurries tonight and Thursday. Lows tonight from the upper 20s to mid 30s. Highs Thursday from the upper 30s to mid 40s.

WEST LAKE SHORE, NORTHWEST INLAND — Mostly cloudy and colder with a chance of snow flurries tonight and Thursday. Lows tonight in the upper 20s and low 30s. Highs Thursday near 40.

WEST CENTRAL, CENTRAL — Partly cloudy and colder with a chance of snow flurries tonight. Lows in the low 30s. Highs Thursday in the low and mid 40s.

EAST CENTRAL, SOUTH-EAST — Mostly cloudy and colder with a chance of snow flurries tonight and Thursday. Lows tonight in the low and mid 30s. Highs Thursday in the low and mid 40s.

SOUTHWEST — Partly cloudy tonight and Thursday. Colder tonight. Lows in the low 30s. Highs Thursday in the 40s.

Powell's Illness Brings Lawsuit

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A Circuit Court judge has issued a restraining order forbidding Jackson Memorial Hospital from releasing the body or possessions of former congressman Adam Clayton Powell "in the event of his demise" pending determination of who is his legal wife.

Powell, 63, has been in critical condition at the hospital since last week. He was airlifted here March 7 by a Coast Guard helicopter from his Bahamian island retreat of Bimini.

Judge Jack A. Falk issued the order Monday after Yvette Diago Powell, the former congressman's third wife, filed suit alleging she was Powell's legal wife.

Labor Members May Quit Pay Board In Protest

WASHINGTON (AP) — A majority of the five labor members on President Nixon's Pay Board reportedly is on the brink of quitting the board to protest White House wage-price regulations.

"We're closer to walking off the Pay Board than at any time since Phase 2 began," said one high source in the AFL-CIO, which has three members on the labor-industry-public board.

One Pay Board member, President Floyd Smith of the AFL-CIO International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers, said he is ready to vote at a labor summit meeting Wednesday to walk off the board.

A high source in the United Auto Workers said, however, that his union isn't ready to give up its seat on the Pay Board, and the Teamsters union also is reported reluctant to quit. The Teamsters and Auto Workers are not affiliated with the 13.6-million-member AFL-CIO. The five labor members previously have worked closely on Pay Board matters.

"I don't believe we're doing much good sitting there, and I don't think it would affect us very much if we left," Smith said of his desire that labor quit the Pay Board.

He said he believed the other AFL-CIO representatives on the Pay Board—AFL-CIO President George Meany and President I. W. Abel of the AFL-CIO United Steelworkers—share his view.

But a source close to Auto Workers President Leonard Woodcock said he does not think the labor members will resign from the Pay Board.

"I don't think that's going to happen. If we leave the board, we would get it in the eye worse," the source said.

The Auto Workers and Machinists unions suffered the first contract rejection when a majority of the 15-member Pay Board voted to order wage hikes for thousands of aerospace workers rolled back from about 12 per cent to roughly 8 per cent.

The latest Pay Board rejection ordered pay increases for 15,000 West Coast longshoremen reduced from 20.9 per cent to 14.9 per cent. That prompted Meany to call Wednesday's labor summit meeting.

Sources said Wednesday's meeting at AFL-CIO headquarters may also decide whether the longshoremen's unions will follow through on earlier hints to renew strikes on all coasts to protest the contract rejection.

Mrs. Gerhardt Graduates With Highest Honors

BARBARA GERHARDT

Mrs. George (Barbara) Gerhardt, Route 1, Stoutsville, graduated with highest honors from Southeastern Ohio School of Practical Nursing March 19 in Nelsonville-York High School.

She was one of 31 students awarded diplomas. 36 other students were capped.

John Light, President of Hocking Technical College, gave the welcome and Mrs. Lucille Cotner, director of Nursing at St. Mary's Hospital, was principal speaker.

Mrs. Gerhardt plans to work in Circleville for a year and a half and then return to college to work at becoming a registered nurse.

BETTY BROWN HOMEMAKER'S HINT

Research has shown flour as a necessary ingredient in oven, bag or wrap cooking. The flour does not effect the results of the cooking, but protects against "bumping". "Bumping" occurs when just the right combination of water and fat accumulate during cooking. The melted fat becomes the top layer and prevents steam from escaping from beneath. Should this "bumping" or popping become too violent, it may break the bag.

To prevent this, shake at least one tablespoon of flour inside the bag or wrap; be sure that the flour coats the inside of bag or wrap. If the bag comes with seasoning or sauce mix, do not use flour; follow package directions.

To insure safe and quality results in oven bag and wrap cooking, be sure to follow carefully all the manufacturers directions. When using oven bags and wraps, take the same care you do in any cooking.

Should you ever have an oven fire, from any cause, turn off the oven and keep the oven door closed.

Boys And Girls In Service

CHARLES N. VALENTINE

The United States Air Force has announced the retirement of Major Charles N. Valentine, son of Mrs. Marvin H. Rife, Stoutsville, after 28 years, 7 months and 16 days of honorable and faithful service to his country.

Major Valentine was born in Lancaster, Ohio, and spent all of his early years in Stoutsville, which he considers his home town. He graduated from Clearcreek Township High School there in 1942 and was inducted into the U.S. Army in March, 1943. He volunteered for Aviation Cadet training and completed pilot school in 1944, graduating as a 2nd Lieutenant. At the age of 19 he became commander of a B-25 Mitchell bomber combat crew and served in that position for the remainder of World War II.

Major Valentine was active in the Army and later Air Force ready reserve from the end of World War II until the start of the Korean conflict, at which time he was recalled to active duty. He served for four years as Chief of Standardization of a Troop Carrier Wing and during that period assisted in the development of many present day airlift and airdrop tactics.

He was one of the original Air Force pilots to flight test the Lockheed C-130 Hercules transport aircraft and in 1957 flew the first transatlantic roundtrip crossing by a turboprop aircraft. He became Chief Pilot for the American Ambassador to Saudi Arabia in 1959 and since that time has held major assignments in both the aircraft operations and maintenance career fields. He was assigned to Malmstrom AFB, Great Falls, Montana, as Base Operations Officer at the time of retirement.

Major Valentine has attended Ohio State University, San Fernando Valley State College, Ventura College and the University of Maryland as well as numerous military schools. He has seen overseas service in England, Germany, Saudi Arabia and Vietnam and has served in all three major combat commands.

He is a Command Pilot with a total of 8,000 hours flying time and has flown 456 combat missions. Among numerous awards he wears the Distinguished Flying Cross, Air Medal with 6 Oak Leaf Clusters, and the Air Force Commendation Medal with 1 Oak Leaf Cluster.

Major Valentine was aided in his career by his wife Anne, and their three children, Susan, Carol and Andrew. The Valentines presently reside in Camarillo, California.

Army First Lieutenant William A. Dore, son of Mrs. Georgia C. Dore, 164 Powell St., Ashville, recently completed a week of field training with the 28th Field Artillery's 2nd Battalion at the Seventh Army Major Training Area near Grafenwohr, Germany.

The training tested the unit's efficiency in firing, communications, fire control, survival and area security.

LT Dore is regularly assigned as commander of the artillery's service battery near Ansbach.

A 1966 graduate of Teays Valley High School, he received his B.S. degree in 1970 from Ohio University, Athens.

His wife Stephanie, is with him in Germany.

PFC David M. Thornton, son of Mr. and Mrs. William

Thornton, 530 Greenacre Court, has been assigned to the Joint Security Agency of the United States Army Security Guard and is stationed at the DMZ in Pan Mun Jom, Korea.

DAVID M. THORNTON

He enlisted in the Army in August, 1971 and completed his basic training at Fort Knox, Ky., and his advanced basic training at Fort Polk, La.

Chief Master Sergeant Harold C. Herron Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Herron of Route 4, Circleville, is a member of the Thailand-based 8th Tactical Fighter Wing that has earned the Pacific Air Force's (PACAF) Outstanding Maintenance Award for 1971.

Sergeant Herron is an aircraft maintenance superintendent with the wing at Ubon Royal Thai Air Force Base.

The award is presented annually to the unit with the most effective and efficient aircraft maintenance operation in the command.

Wing commander Colonel James A. Young, in a congratulatory message to all officers and airmen in the unit, said, "Not only do we have the largest, most complex aircraft maintenance operation in the Air Force — we have the best. What more can you ask for?"

The PACAF honor places the wing in competition for Air Force-wide honors for the Daedalian Maintenance Trophy. The award was established by the Order of Daedalians, an organization founded by World War I pilots.

The sergeant served at Lockbourne AFB, Ohio, prior to his Southeast Asia assignment.

Sergeant Herron is a 1946 graduate of Circleville High School. His wife is the former Lois A. Bottomley.

Soldiers from the 1st Battalion, 18th Infantry, 1st Infantry Division recently returned to Ft. Riley, Kan., after undergoing training at the Florida Ranger Camp, Eglin Air Force Base, Fla.

Specialist four Samuel L. Runkle, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard D. Runkle, Route 1, Ashville, played the role of aggressor against ranger students, who also received training in jungle operations at the camp.

The month-long training included instruction in methods of survival in a jungle-type area as well as fighting techniques suited to this terrain.

Spec. Runkle is an infantryman in Company C of the Battalion. He entered the army in January 1971 and received basic training at Ft. Knox, Ky.

The specialist is a 1969 graduate of Teays Valley High School, Ashville.

With a proud history that stretches from France and Germany in World War I to the highlands of Vietnam, the 1st Infantry Division has an army-wide reputation of being first when needed.

It was the first U.S. Army Division to go overseas in World War I and meet the enemy, first to land in Britain in World War II and first to arrive in Vietnam in July 1965. Its combat mission accomplished, "The Big Red One" now makes its home at Ft. Riley.

U. S. Air Force Sergeant Edgar H. Martindale, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence T. Martindale of Route 1, Williamsport, serves the cause of air defense at a radar station atop Mount Hebo near the central Oregon coast.

Sergeant Martindale is a member of the 689th Radar Squadron of the Aerospace Defense Command's (ADC) 25th Air Division. As a vehicle mechanic, he supports the technicians who maintain and operate aircraft control and warning equipment vital to the nation's air defense. The squadron functions within ADC's Semi-Automatic Ground Environment System providing high speed command and control.

At Mt. Hebo Air Force Station, the sergeant and fellow mountain dwellers experience winter weather akin to that known in Arctic regions — sometimes traveling steel tunnels through snow as deep as eight feet to reach work and living areas. A record 368 inches of snow fell on the radar station last year.

ADC personnel there have clocked winter winds at more than 170 miles an hour. Following a "big blow," personnel repair any damages incurred and scoop away the snow drifts while continuing the primary mission of radar surveillance.

Sergeant Martindale is a 1964 graduate of Jackson High School. His wife is the former Penny J. Daniels.

Brent E. Rhoads, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Rhoads, last week was awarded the Army Commendation Medal. The medal was awarded by the U.S. Army for Meritorious Service while serving as a First Lieutenant at Camp Pickett, Virginia from October 1970 to January 1972.

Mr. and Mrs. Brent Rhoads have settled in Circleville after being discharged and are residing at 302½ Watt St. Brent is presently in partnership with his father operating Rhoads' Farm Market.

Private Gregory L. Pontius, son of Mrs. Jeanne R. Pontius, Route 6, Lancaster, recently completed with honors eight weeks of basic training at the U.S. Army Training Center, Ft. Campbell, Ky.

GREGORY L. PONTIUS

He received instruction in drill and ceremonies, weapons, map reading, combat tactics, military courtesy, military justice, first aid and army history and traditions.

Pvt. Pontius received his training in Company C, 3rd Battalion, 1st Brigade.

A 1967 graduate of Amanda Clearcreek High School, he received his B.S. degree in 1971 from Ohio State University, Columbus.

His wife Kathleen, lives at 116 Gale Court, Circleville.

RM 2 Michael E. Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Haley, Stoutsville, is serving at NCS Iceland in the land of fire and ice.

The location is so named because of both volcanic and glacial presence on the northern Atlantic.

Navy, Air Force and Marine Corp units of the Iceland defense force are served by the communications station as well as the world wide defense communications systems.

Wilson entered the Navy Dec. 29, 1963.

Having attended Circleville High School, he married the former Cheri M. Horne Wilson.

A-Plant Permit Issued By Board

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The $270 million Davis-Besse nuclear power plant under construction near Port Clinton received approval from the Ohio Water Pollution Board Tuesday to discharge recycled water into Lake Erie.

The board certified the plant's water discharge permit application to the Atomic Energy Commission. Several other permits still are required before the facility begins operations.

The board noted that certification was only for current water quality standards and "is not to be construed as given pursuant to an assessment or review of the total environmental impact of the station."

Australia is the world's top wool producer.

Ask Removal Of Lima State Trial Judge

LIMA, Ohio (AP) — Common Pleas Judge John Harnishfeger said he was "utterly and completely flabbergasted" by the state's effort to have him disqualified from trying any of the 30 remaining cases against former Lima State Hospital employees.

Affidavits charging Harnishfeger with prejudice were filed with the Allen County clerk of courts Tuesday by Nicholas Curci, an assistant state attorney general.

Curci asked that the affidavits be forwarded to Chief Justice C. William O'Neill of the Ohio Supreme Court for a ruling.

Harnishfeger presided at the trial of William Huff, the first of 31 former hospital attendants to be tried on patient mistreatment charges returned by a special state grand jury.

Harnishfeger directed a verdict of acquittal for Huff, saying the state had failed to prove its case.

Curci said the affidavits were prepared after Harnishfeger refused to disqualify himself.

The judge leined he had been asked to step down. He said his first knowledge of the affidavits

Former OU President Heads Arts Council

BOSTON (AP) — Gov. Francis Sargent Tuesday named Vernon Alden, chairman of the Boston Co., and a former president of Ohio University, chairman of the Massachusetts Council of the Arts and humanities.

Alden was appointed a council member more than a year ago. He succeeds John R. Watts, a Boston University professor of fine arts, as chairman of the council.

came when Curci told him they were being filed. He said he could think of no reason to disqualify himself.

Harnishfeger said Curci told him the state planned to prosecute each case. He added there have been discussion of possibly consolidating some companion cases for trial purposes.

Harnishfeger said he plans to preside at all the trials barring illness or other events which might prevent him from doing so.

The attorney general's office in Columbus said all proceedings will be stayed pending a ruling from O'Neill on the affidavits.

Wilson entered the Navy Dec. 29, 1963.

Having attended Circleville High School, he married the former Cheri M. Horne Wilson.

A-Plant Permit Issued By Board

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The $270 million Davis-Besse nuclear power plant under construction near Port Clinton received approval from the Ohio Water Pollution Board Tuesday to discharge recycled water into Lake Erie.

The board certified the plant's water discharge permit application to the Atomic Energy Commission. Several other permits still are required before the facility begins operations.

The board noted that certification was only for current water quality standards and "is not to be construed as given pursuant to an assessment or review of the total environmental impact of the station."

Ask Removal Of Lima State Trial Judge

LIMA, Ohio (AP) — Common Pleas Judge John Harnishfeger said he was "utterly and completely flabbergasted" by the state's effort to have him disqualified from trying any of the 30 remaining cases against former Lima State Hospital employees.

Affidavits charging Harnishfeger with prejudice were filed with the Allen County clerk of courts Tuesday by Nicholas Curci, an assistant state attorney general.

Curci asked that the affidavits be forwarded to Chief Justice C. William O'Neill of the Ohio Supreme Court for a ruling.

Harnishfeger presided at the trial of William Huff, the first of 31 former hospital attendants to be tried on patient mistreatment charges returned by a special state grand jury. Harnishfeger directed a verdict of acquittal for Huff, saying the state had failed to prove its case.

Curci said the affidavits were prepared after Harnishfeger refused to disqualify himself. The judge leined he had been asked to step down. He said his first knowledge of the affidavits came when Curci told him they were being filed. He said he could think of no reason to disqualify himself.

Harnishfeger said Curci told him the state planned to prosecute each case. He added there have been discussion of possibly consolidating some companion cases for trial purposes.

Harnishfeger said he plans to preside at all the trials barring illness or other events which might prevent him from doing so. The attorney general's office in Columbus said all proceedings will be stayed pending a ruling from O'Neill on the affidavits.

Former OU President Heads Arts Council

BOSTON (AP) — Gov. Francis Sargent Tuesday named Vernon Alden, chairman of the Boston Co., and a former president of Ohio University, chairman of the Massachusetts Council of the Arts and Humanities.

Alden was appointed a council member more than a year ago. He succeeds John R. Watts, a Boston University professor of fine arts, as chairman of the council.

A&P has nationally famous brands no one else has!

Your A&P has all the brand names you know and want...
Del Monte, Campbell, Nabisco, Heinz, Kraft...just to name a few.

But your A&P has more brands like
A&P, Ann Page, Jane Parker...just to name a few.

These exclusive A&P Brands have earned their nationally famous reputation. How?

By virtue of quality.
Quality so outstanding, we guarantee without condition, that they are the equal of or better than any brand you know.

If assured quality isn't enough, and if you're concerned about your food costs, think of this:
A&P's own nationally famous brands offer you assured savings... meaningful savings.

Not every store can offer you this. A&P can...and does.

Pickaway Grange

STAR GRANGE
Star Grange met in regular session Tuesday evening in the Monroe School auditorium with Worthy Master Harold Furniss presiding over the business session. The secretary Helen Hammel read the score sheet for the Deputies' report of our inspection and contributions were made to the Heart Fund, Easter Seal Fund and the National Youth Fund. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rogers asked that their names be removed from the roll.

The Grange Youth will present the program at the next regular meeting on March 28. The program "St. Patrick's Day and the Coming of Spring" was presented under the direction of Helen Hammel, lecturer pro tem. It opened with a contest on making words of "St. Patrick's Day" and Laura Long had the most words. "A Walk In Spring" was read by Mrs. Loring Storer and Mrs. Dwight Reid read, "A Sign of Spring." "The Wearin' of the Green" was read by Robert Morgan and "You're Irish" was read by Fran Polrod. A guessing contest was held with each member telling the number of green gumdrops in a jar. Mrs. Loring Storer guessed the nearest number and was presented the jar of candy. Each member present was given a green shamrock.

Lovely refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Reid and Mr. Dale Smith.

Students Help Out On Blind Project

LOGAN, Utah (AP) — Blind people have easy access to the days headlines through radio but there is a large portion of the news that they may miss—the news and features backgrounded in newspapers.

Speech students at Utah State University have started a project to bring local news events into the homes of some 50 sightless persons in the Cache Valley area.

ITT Says Original Memo Found; Claim Disputed

WASHINGTON (AP) — International Telephone & Telegraph Corp. says it has discovered the "genuine" memo by lobbyist Dita Beard, but an associate of columnist Jack Anderson calls the ITT claim absurd.

ITT said Monday that it has turned over to the Senate Judiciary Committee "important new evidence that the so-called Beard memorandum of Mr. Jack Anderson was a fraud."

The committee is investigating suggestions by Anderson that ITT won favorable settlement of an antitrust action by pledging heavy financial support for the Republican National Convention in San Diego.

To support the suggestions, Anderson released copies of a memo he attributed to Mrs. Beard of ITT's Washington office, written June 25, 1971.

Eighteen days after Anderson released the memo, an affidavit attributed to Mrs. Beard described the memo as a fraud and a hoax.

ITT said Monday that it discovered, in the last few days, a memo by Mrs. Beard dated June 25, 1971. The firm said in a statement: "The genuine Beard memorandum is inconsistent with the Anderson memorandum."

At the same time, ITT released copies of affidavits from Susan Lichtman, Mrs. Beard's former secretary; William R. Merriam, head of the Washington ITT office, and ITT security administrator Russell J. Tagliareni, a former FBI agent.

Brit Hume, the Anderson associate who said he obtained the memo and interviewed Mrs. Beard twice about it, rejected ITT's claim.

Mrs. Beard, who has been hospitalized in Denver for several days, is expected to be released late this week or over the weekend. A judiciary subcommittee plans to question her in the hospital Wednesday.

The inquiry was instituted at the request of acting Atty. Gen. Richard G. Kleindienst, who said he wanted to disprove Anderson's allegations. Anderson had disputed Kleindienst's

Heath Announces Major Changes

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Edward Heath's Conservative government Tuesday announced sweeping measures to help British industry gear for tough competition within the European Common Market and to slash unemployment.

Chancellor of the Exchequer Anthony Barber also told the House of Commons old-age pensions will be raised by 12½ per cent.

State funds, he said, will be made available for projects designed to bring down the country's record high unemployment.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield has said the full Senate will not vote on Kleindienst's nomination until the committee completes its probe.

Fear Rabies Increase

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio officials are worried that this may be the second year of a long-term upswing in cases of animal rabies.

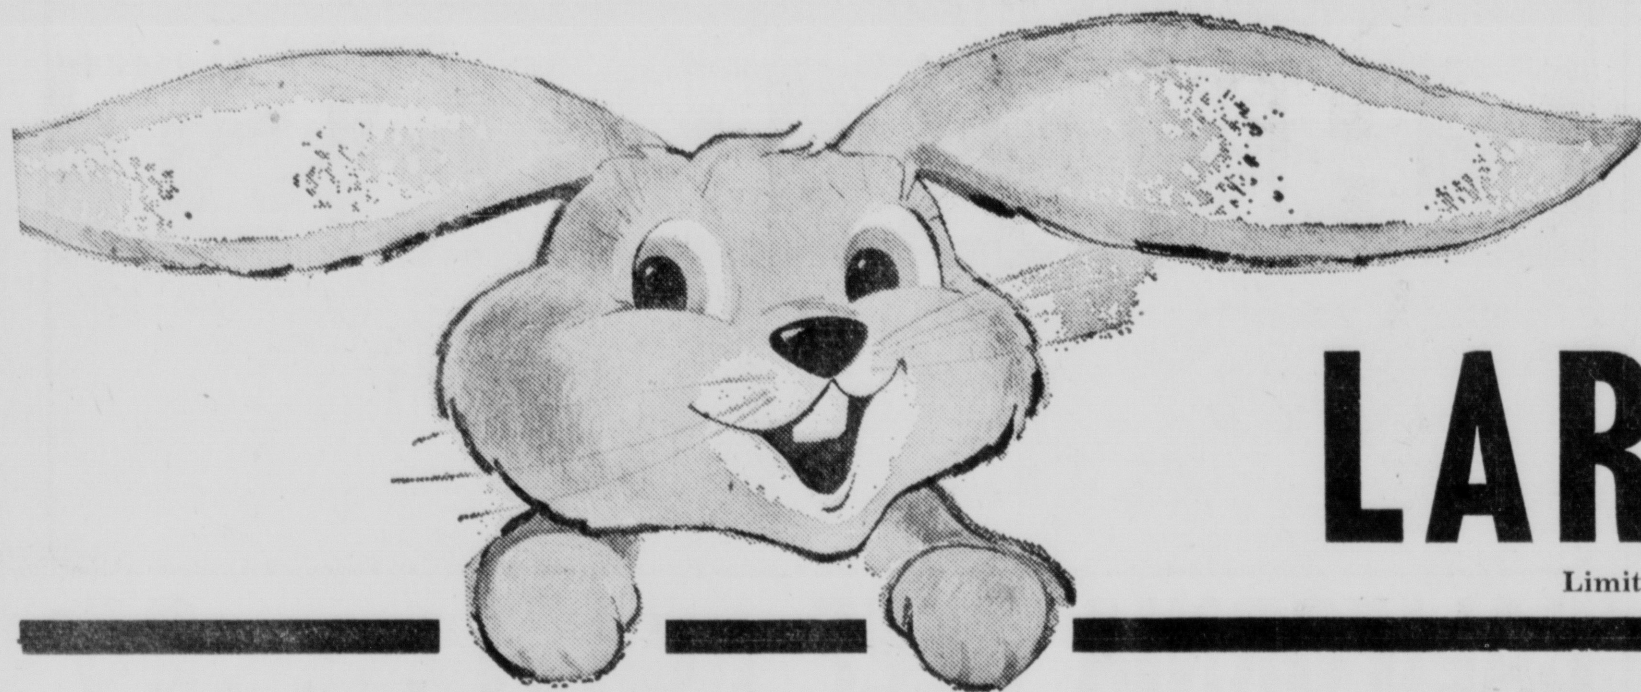

Both the director of health and director of agriculture today issued an appeal to Ohioans to immunize their dogs and cats, a move that could significantly reduce human exposure to the disease.

In 1971 Ohio had 124 reported cases of rabies. That was just twice the number of 1970.

Agriculture Director Gene R. Abercrombie and Health Director John Cashman jointly reminded Ohioans that by law all incidents involving humans exposed to animal bites must be reported to local health departments.

A 14-year study of rabies in Ohio showed 2,827 reported cases of rabies, with the all-time high of 395 cases in 1962.

SUPER DUPER Home of the "Penny Savers"

COURTLAND, Calif. (AP) — Sally Hearne thought it was pretty dull being a single teacher in this tiny Sacramento River town. So she joined the volunteer fire department five months ago and the chief says, "I wish some of the male firemen were as eager."

"I've been the first or second volunteer there on every fire," the attractive 25-year-old blond said. "I feel like I'm just one of the guys."

She insists her reasons have nothing to do with women's liberation.

"I believe in doing what I want to do. If I want to climb a telephone pole then I'll go out and climb a telephone pole. But I'm not going to march up and down the streets saying I want to climb a telephone pole," she said.

Asked what prompted the fire-fighting role, she said, "The town is pretty much devoid of entertainment. It's downright dull here."

She said she found just what she was looking for in the drama of fighting a fire.

The only difficulty came on her first call, when she found she couldn't handle the water hose.

"It was just pulling me all over the place," she said. "I didn't find out until two days later that they had upped the pressure and were all standing back having a big laugh about it."

Even though her boots are too big and the fireman's helmet gives her trouble, Fire

Chief Cyle Gregg says she's doing "real well" at fires.

Ohio Employment Shows Decrease

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Employment in Ohio showed a general decline in January, compared to January 1971, Ohio State University reported today.

The OSU Center for Business and Economic Research said the state-wide decrease was 4 per cent.

U.S. May Sell Jets To Greek Government

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department has told Congress that negotiations are going on with Greece for the sale of two squadrons of U.S. Phantom jet planes to that country.

Joseph J. Sisco, assistant secretary of state for Near Eastern affairs, said the purpose of the sale and a requested 50 per cent hike in U.S. military support for Greece is to strengthen that country as a North Atlantic Treaty Organization ally.

Importance Of Bugging Explained

WASHINGTON (AP) — Concealed recorders and wiretaps or electronic eavesdroppers are critically important in fighting the loan shark racket, the head of the Justice Department's organized crime section says.

Edward T. Joyce, acting chief of the section, told a House consumer affairs subcommittee today that enforcers generally must rely on information from a victim, who usually has been intimidated into extortion payments by threats of beating or worse.

"The victim himself may be willing to testify against his hoodlum creditor, but without corroboration such testimony is seldom trial-worthy," Joyce said in prepared testimony.

This technique was used in about 66 organized crime-linked extortion cases, Joyce said.

In other cases, where victims are too frightened to testify, "probable cause of extortionate credit transactions involving certain telephones or particularized premises will furnish the support for a court-ordered wiretap or electronic bug even without a cooperating victim," Joyce said.

Vermont is now considered the home for a pure strain of coyote.

All-Ohio Class A Players Are Announced

By GEORGE STRODE
Associated Press Sports Writer
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Bob Huggins of Gnadenhutten Indian Valley South, the all-time Ohio high school basketball scoring champion, is the Associated Press Class A state player of the year.

The 6-foot-4 senior was selected with the recommendations of a statewide panel of sports writers and broadcasters.

Huggins, the star for his dad Charles' state tournament-bound squad, has 2,383 points in four seasons, passing the recognized Ohio mark of 2,355 set by Allan Hornyak of Bellaire St. John's in 1969.

The younger Huggins spearheads an eight-man all-state first team whose members averaged between 25 and 32 points a game. Greg Romano of Lancaster Fisher, a 5-9 junior, leads the squad in scoring with 32 points a game. Dave Hammond, 6-2 Ross Zane Trace senior, also topped the 30-point mark with 30.1.

Also gaining first team berths were 5-10 Tom Dunn of Covington, 6-5 Dale Haarman of Cincinnati St. Bernard, 6-6 Bob Walden of Dola Hardin North, 6-2 Barry Andriko of Lordstown and 6-6 Dan Hagen of Columbia Station Columbia.

Huggins was the only player to win a first team berth for the second straight season. Dunn moved up from the 1971 third squad.

Huggins poured in 64 points in two regional victories last week to surpass Hornyak, now an Ohio State junior. He played his first two seasons at Conotton Valley. He has 655 points this season.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Following is the Associated Press 1972 Class A All-Ohio high school basketball team selected on the recommendations of a statewide panel of sports writers and broadcasters.

L.A. And Houston To Become Hosts For Super Bowls

HONOLULU (AP) — National Football League owners have pulled off an unprecedented triple play that establishes Los Angeles and Houston as the host cities for the next two Super Bowls and re-routes the Pro Bowl game from Los Angeles to alternating American and National Conference sites.

The unprecedented action—setting up successive Super Bowl sites—came Tuesday on a compromise proposed by Bud Adams, the owner of the Houston Oilers, after the 26 club owners appeared deadlocked over whether to award the 1973 Super Bowl game to Los Angeles or Houston.

The compromise covered both. It returned the Super Bowl to the Los Angeles Coliseum at the end of the 1972 season for the first time since Super Bowl I and gave the 1974 Super Bowl to Houston's Rice Stadium for the city's first opportunity at hosting pro football's premier spectacle.

It made Houston only the fourth city ever to be awarded a Super Bowl game—Los Angeles having hosted the first and Miami and New Orleans the last five post-season extravaganzas. Miami and New Orleans both made presentations at the meeting.

In order to accommodate Los Angeles as the Super Bowl site, the owners shifted the site of the Pro Bowl game, which has been a fixture in that city since 1951, to Dallas, Tex., stadium for 1973 and an AFC city in 1974. The AFC site was not picked.

That makes the Super Bowl-Pro Bowl schedule for the next two years look like this at a glance:

Jan. 14, 1973—Super Bowl at Los Angeles (Coliseum)
Jan. 20-21, 1973—Pro Bowl at Dallas (Texas Stadium)
Jan. 13, 1974—Super Bowl at Houston (Rice Stadium)
Jan. 19-20, 1974—Pro Bowl at AFC site to be selected.
The three dates for the pro bowls cover the game being played either Saturday or Sunday, or possibly Monday as an extension of the popular Monday night series of national telecasts.

North Stars Whip Golden Seals, 4-2

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
California wants some help in its bid for the National Hockey League playoffs but it didn't find it in Minnesota.

The North Stars whipped the Golden Seals 4-2 Tuesday night to keep the team in fourth place in the West Division, one point behind St. Louis.

3 East Tech 23-1, challenges top-ranked Celina, 24-0, at 3:30 p.m.

It's the Class A boys' turn Friday night. Top-rated Gnadenhutten Indian Valley South, 24-0, takes on Cincinnati St. Bernard, 21-5, at 7:30 p.m. Morral Ridgedale, 19-5, and Continental, 19-5, play the 9:30 p.m. nightcap.

The championship games are Saturday, with the AA finals at 11:30 a.m., the AAA title contest at 3 p.m. and the A finale at 7:30 p.m.

"Our kids worked against guys like Walt Wesley and Bingo Smith of the Cavaliers last summer at Cuyahoga Community College. It really helped. They came back more mature," said East Tech mentor John Chavers.

East Tech is much better than last year's semifinals because of balance and depth.

"This is the best bunch of athletes East Tech ever has produced," Chavers said.

The Scarabs have awesome rebounding power with Nate Washington and Michael St. Clair, a pair of 6-foot-6, 225-pounders, and 6-4, 210-pound James Abrams. Washington and St. Clair were defensive football ends.

East Tech will be running into Celina's balance and a five that have been playing together since the sixth grade.

"These kids made a vow in the sixth grade that they would play in St. John Arena someday," recalls Celina coach Dean White. One of the Bulldog starters is his son Dean, a 6-foot senior with a 15-point average.

"They've been together as a unit as seventh, eighth and 12th graders and won about 50 straight games," said White.

Cincinnati Princeton mentor John Hillard, who led Cincinnati Lincoln Heights to the 1970 Class A state title, said this year's team is not as good as last season.

"We're not as strong," he said, "but we're hustling and the kids are unselfish." The Vikings lost two of their four games when Hillard suspended five players for disciplinary reasons. Princeton went on to the Middletown and Hamilton Taft for the Greater Miami Conference title.

Hillard plays eight boys, with 6-4 junior Rick White the scoring leader with 17.5. Greg Se-well, a 5-9 senior who scored 40 points against Cincinnati Elder in the Cincinnati Regional, is next with a 15.5 average.

Joe Siegfert has two returning starters, 6-7, 235-pound Bradley Robinson and 5-9 Willie Wade, from the Akron Central Lower state semifinalist team last season.

"We're pretty much like last year," said Siegfert, a 17-year coaching veteran. "We've got a little more bench and balance this time."

Robinson, a second team all-state selection, averages 18 points and 15 rebounds and Wade 14 points.

There are two father-son combinations in the state tournament. The Whites for Celina and Indian Valley South mentor Charles Huggins and his son, 6-4 Bob, The Associated Press state Class A player of the year.

Two coaches have won Ohio tournament titles. Huggins did it at Strasburg in 1967 and Hilliard at Lincoln Heights.

All sessions in 13,489-seat St. John Arena, except the Class AA and A title contests, are expected to be sellouts.

Golf Tourney Trail Notes

Associated Press Golf Writer
NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Notes from the pro golf tournament trail:

Lee Trevino's gimpy left knee bothers him in cold, wet weather—but not enough to undergo surgery.

"They wanted me to have an operation on it about a year ago," said Trevino, who was hurt when he accidentally stepped on a golf ball a couple of years ago.

"I asked 'em how long it would keep me out. The doctor said, 'about 14 weeks.' I said, 'No way. No way at all. I can't afford it.' I could afford the operation, of course, but I couldn't afford the money I'd lose from the tour."

Trevino, incidentally, has ordered a six wood for use at the U.S. Open at Pebble Beach, Calif. this summer.

"I've carried a five wood for years," Trevino said. "I can get more loft with the woods than I can long irons and I want a six wood for Pebble."

Jimmy Jamieson has what you might call a mixed bag. The chubby young man from Moline, Ill., was going over his clubs after shooting a course record 63 in a recent tournament.

He has Ping, Spalding and Powerbilt irons, Golf Craft woods, a Hagen wedge, a Hogan sand iron and a Spalding putter.

"Now, if I ever win the Open, I've got 'em covered," he said, grinning.

Some of the tourists are wondering openly about the new format for the Match Play championship at Pinehurst, N.C., this fall.

It's complicated. Eight players are exempt. They are the winners of the four major championships, the defending champion and the next three leading money winners from last year.

The other eight come from the $100,000 Liggett and Myers Open, being played simultaneously on the same Country Club of North Carolina course. The first eight players after 36 holes of competition in that tournament are transferred to the Match Play brackets.

"But suppose," said Lou Graham, "I had two hot rounds and have a five stroke lead at the end of 36 holes. Now, I'm playing in a $100,000 tournament, with a chance for $20,000 and full rights, a year's exemption, a spot in the Masters, everything.

Bobby Darwin Bids As Outfielder

Pacers Rip Pittsburgh

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
It looked like a charity game when Indiana played Pittsburgh without high-scoring stars Mel Daniels and Roger Brown. But if the Pacers were feeling charitable, it didn't show.

Daniels and Brown were rested Tuesday night in preparation for the American Basketball Association playoffs. The Indiana lineup didn't show any weaknesses as it dispatched Pittsburgh quite effectively 129-116 with all starters scoring 20 or more points.

The Pacers, second in the West Division, even appeared to get stronger toward the end of the game, outscoring the Condors 16-5 in the third period to stretch their lead. The loss was the ninth straight for Pittsburgh.

George McGinnis led Indiana with 33 points while Fred Lewis had 23 and Rick Mount 22. Darnell Hillman and Bob Meto each hit 20 for the Pacers. John Brisker paced the Condors with 25 points while teammate Bob Verga scored 24.

In other ABA games, Kentucky defeated Memphis 102-99, Dallas topped the Floridians 107-90 and Utah defeated Denver 132-120.

ballplayers' careers when, after a particularly rough day, they wonder if they shouldn't be doing some other job.

That time came to Bobby Darwin in 1970, not after a tough game, but after a tough season. Darwin had been bouncing around various minor league whistletops for eight years, disguised as a pitcher. When he had an 0-6 record and 6.49 earned run average for Spokane in 1970, he decided it was time to try something else. Something like the outfield.

Now Darwin is a slugger instead of a slinger. A rookie at 29, he is making a strong bid for a job with the Minnesota Twins. The converted hurler belted two home runs Tuesday—his fifth and sixth of the spring—giving the Twins a 4-2 decision over Boston.

In other exhibition games Tuesday, Philadelphia edged Cincinnati 2-1, Pittsburgh downed St. Louis 5-3, the Chicago Cubs dropped Milwaukee 5-3, San Diego nipped Cleveland 4-3, Oakland shut out California 6-0, the New York Yankees trimmed the Chicago White Sox 7-1, Kansas City outlasted Texas 9-7, the New York Mets defeated Baltimore 4-2 and Atlanta defeated Montreal 4-2. In other games, Houston and Los Angeles battled to a 2-2 tie and San Francisco and the Tokyo Lotte Orions tied 1-1.

Darwin, who hit 27 homers for the Hermosillo club to lead the Mexican Pacific Coast League during the winter, now has 18 runs batted in for 42 spring swings.

Rookie pitcher Mike Rudell, trimmed from the Cincinnati squad earlier, allowed three straight walks in the eighth inning, forcing home Philadelphia's winning run against the Reds. Greg Luzinski and

All-Ohio Class A Players Are Announced

By GEORGE STRODE
Associated Press Sports Writer
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Bob Huggins of Gadenhutte Indian Valley South, the all-time Ohio high school basketball scoring champion, is The Associated Press Class A state player of the year.

The 6-foot-4 senior was selected with the recommendations of a statewide panel of sports writers and broadcasters.

Huggins, the star for his dad Charles' state tournament-bound squad, has 2,383 points in four seasons, passing the recognized Ohio mark of 2,355 set by Allan Hornyak of Bellaire St. John's in 1969.

The younger Huggins spearheads an eight-man all-state first team whose members averaged between 25 and 32 points a game.

Greg Romano of Lancaster Fisher, a 5-9 junior, leads the squad in scoring with 32 points a game. Dave Hammond, 6-2 Ross Zane Trace senior, also topped the 30-point mark with 30.1.

Also gaining first team berths were 5-10 Tom Dunn of Covington, 6-5 Dale Haarman of Cincinnati St. Bernard, 6-6 Bob Walden of Dola Hardin North, 6-2 Barry Andriko of Lordstown and 6-6 Dan Hagen of Columbia Station Columbia.

Huggins was the only player to win a first team berth for the second straight season. Dunn moved up from the 1971 third squad.

Huggins poured in 64 points in two regional victories last week to surpass Hornyak, now an Ohio State junior. He played his first two seasons at Conotton Valley. He has 655 points this season.

UCLA To Face Louisville In NCAA Semifinal Clash

LOS ANGELES (AP) — UCLA Coach John Wooden would prefer not playing a team coached by one of his ex-players or one of his ex-assistants, but even though you combine the two, the Bruins are out to win.

They meet Louisville Thursday night with the winner playing for the NCAA title which UCLA has captured the past five campaigns.

Denny Crum, three years an assistant to Wooden and a Bruin player for two, assumed the coaching job at Louisville this season.

"... I'd prefer not to play teams coached by my very close friends or ex-players. It's just like playing against a relative," Wooden mused. "I coached against my brother when we both were with high schools."

Winners of the UCLA-Louisville and North Carolina-Florida State games meet for the national collegiate title at the Los Angeles Sports Arena Saturday afternoon.

Crum, 34, acknowledges that he uses much of the Wooden method in his debut as a head coach. He also admits the two had differences of opinion.

"We did have differences in some respects," He told the Southern California Basketball

Writers in a telephone interview Tuesday. "But the things he does in the majority of cases are right."

Wooden, Crum, Dean Smith of North Carolina and Hugh Durham of Florida State were in agreement on one aspect of this tournament—they will stick with the offenses and defenses which have brought them this far.

Guard Jim Price has been the star for Louisville and Wooden was asked what he planned to counteract him.

"I'm not just certain," he replied. "We'll have Henry Bibby guard him on the outside. If he takes the low post, we'll make changes and he does go to the low post a lot."

Louisville's Crum naturally was asked how he expected to stop UCLA's 6-foot 11 sophomore All-American Bill Walton. All he could say was, "Nothing is impossible. If you do stop him, you've done a great job."

L.A. And Houston To Become Hosts For Super Bowls

HONOLULU (AP) — National Football League owners have pulled off an unprecedented triple play that establishes Los Angeles and Houston as the host cities for the next two Super Bowls and re-routes the Pro Bowl game from Los Angeles to alternating American and National Conference sites.

The unprecedented action—setting up successive Super Bowl sites—came Tuesday on a compromise proposed by Bud Adams, the owner of the Houston Oilers, after the 26 club owners appeared deadlocked over whether to award the 1973 Super Bowl game to Los Angeles or Houston.

The compromise covered both. It returned the Super Bowl to the Los Angeles Coliseum at the end of the 1972 season for the first time since Super Bowl I and gave the 1974 Super Bowl to Houston's Rice

Stadium for the city's first opportunity at hosting pro football's premier spectacle.

It made Houston only the fourth city ever to be awarded a Super Bowl game—Los Angeles having hosted the first and Miami and New Orleans the last five post-season extravaganzas. Miami and New Orleans both made presentations at the meeting.

In order to accommodate Los Angeles as the Super Bowl site, the owners shifted the site of the Pro Bowl game, which has been a fixture in that city since 1951, to Dallas, Tex., stadium for 1973 and an AFC city in 1974. The AFC site was not picked.

That makes the Super Bowl-Pro Bowl schedule for the next two years look like this at a glance:

Jan. 14, 1973—Super Bowl at Los Angeles (Coliseum)

Jan. 20-21, 1973—Pro Bowl at Dallas (Texas Stadium)

Jan. 13, 1974—Super Bowl at Houston (Rice Stadium)

Jan. 19-20, 1974—Pro Bowl at AFC site to be selected.

The three dates for the pro bowls cover the game being played either Saturday or Sunday, or possibly Monday as an extension of the popular Monday night series of national telecasts.

North Stars Whip Golden Seals, 4-2

Pacers Rip Pittsburgh

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It looked like a charity game when Indiana played Pittsburgh without high-scoring stars Mel Daniels and Roger Brown. But if the Pacers were feeling charitable, it didn't show.

Daniels and Brown were rested Tuesday night in preparation for the American Basketball Association playoffs. The Indiana lineup didn't show any weaknesses as it dispatched Pittsburgh quite effectively 139-116 with all starters scoring 20 or more points.

The Pacers, second in the West Division, even appeared to get stronger toward the end of the game, outscoring the Condors 16-5 in the third period to stretch their lead. The loss was the ninth straight for Pittsburgh.

George McGinnis led Indiana with 33 points while Fred Lewis had 23 and Rick Mount 22. Darnell Hillman and Bob Meto each hit 20 for the Pacers. John Brisker paced the Condors with 25 points while teammate Bob Verga scored 24.

In other ABA games, Kentucky defeated Memphis 102-99, Dallas topped the Floridians 107-90 and Utah downed Denver 132-120.

There comes a time in most ballplayers' careers when, after a particularly rough day, they wonder if they shouldn't be doing some other job.

That time came to Bobby Darwin in 1970, not after a tough game, but after a tough season. Darwin had been bouncing around various minor league whistlstops for eight years, disguised as a pitcher. When he had an 0-6 record and 6.49 earned run average for Spokane in 1970, he decided it was time to try something else. Something like the outfield.

Now Darwin is a slugger instead of a slinger. A rookie at 29, he is making a strong bid for a job with the Minnesota Twins. The converted hurler belted two home runs Tuesday—his fifth and sixth of the spring—giving the Twins a 4-2 decision over Boston.

In other exhibition games Tuesday, Philadelphia edged Cincinnati 2-1, Pittsburgh downed St. Louis 5-3, the Chicago Cubs dropped Milwaukee 5-3, San Diego nipped Cleveland 4-3, Oakland shut out California 6-0, the New York Yankees trimmed the Chicago White Sox 7-1, Kansas City outlasted Texas 9-7, the New York Mets defeated Baltimore 4-2 and Atlanta defeated Montreal 4-2. In other games, Houston and Los Angeles battled to a 2-2 tie and San Francisco and the Tokyo Lotte Orions tied 1-1.

Reds Blast 12 Hits; Phillies Win, 2-1

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — The poor-hitting Cincinnati Reds blasted 12 hits Tuesday in an exhibition game although the Philadelphia Phillies won it 2-1.

The Reds, who have one tie and six losses in the past seven encounters, have scored only three earned runs in 59 innings.

"I'm not at all concerned about our hitting," said Red Manager Sparky Anderson. "If I've got to worry about Pete Rose, Tony Perez and Bob Toan then it's going to be a long season."

State Prep Cagers Start Action Thursday

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Cleveland East Tech, its players strengthened by summer scrimmaging with the Cleveland Cavaliers, guns for its third state high school basketball title this weekend.

The tall and powerful Scarabs, who won Class AA crowns in 1958 and 1959, are the only one of 12 semifinalists in the three classes to have once ruled Ohio.

The Class AA semifinals launch the 50th schoolboy classic in Ohio State's St. John Arena Thursday night.

In those contests, Columbus Ready, 23-1, faces Middletown Madison, 24-1, at 7:30 p.m. and top-ranked Lexington, 24-0, goes against Poland, 22-2, at 9:30 p.m.

The Class AAA semifinals are Friday. Cincinnati Princeton, 20-4, and Akron Central-Howe, 22-2, open at 11:30 a.m. and No.

East Tech 23-1, challenges top-ranked Celina, 24-0, at 3:30 p.m.

It's the Class A boys' turn Friday night. Top-rated Gadenhutte Indian Valley South, 24-0, takes on Cincinnati St. Bernard, 21-5, at 7:30 p.m. Morral Ridgedale, 19-5, and Continental, 19-5, play the 9:30 p.m. nightcap.

The championship games are Saturday, with the AA finals at 11:30 a.m., the AAA title contest at 3 p.m. and the A finale at 7:30 p.m.

"Our kids worked against guys like Walt Wesley and Bingo Smith of the Cavaliers last summer at Cuyahoga Community College. It really helped. They came back more mature," said East Tech mentor John Chavers.

East Tech is much better than last year's semifinalists because of balance and depth.

"This is the best bunch of athletes East Tech ever has produced," Chavers said.

The Scarabs have awesome rebounding power with Nate Washington and Michael St. Clair, a pair of 6-foot-6, 225-pounders, and 6-4, 210-pound James Abrams. Washington and St. Clair were defensive football ends.

East Tech will be running into Celina's balance and a five that have been playing together since the sixth grade.

"These kids made a vow in the sixth grade that they would play in St. John Arena someday," recalls Celina coach Dean White. One of the Bulldog starters is his son Dean, a 6-foot senior with a 15-point average.

"They've been together as a unit as seventh, eighth and 12th graders and won about 50 straight games," said White.

Cincinnati Princeton mentor John Hillard, who led Cincinnati Lincoln Heights to the 1970 Class A state title, said this year's team is not as good as last season.

"We're not as strong," he said, "but we're hustling and the kids are unselfish."

The Vikings lost two of their four games when Hillard suspended five players for disciplinary reasons. Princeton went on to tie Middletown and Hamilton Taft for the Greater Miami Conference title.

Hillard plays eight boys, with 6-4 junior Rick White the scoring leader with 17.5. Greg Sewell, a 5-9 senior who scored 40 points against Cincinnati Elder in the Cincinnati Regional, is next with a 15.5 average.

Joe Siegfert has two returning starters, 6-7, 235-pound Bradley Robinson and 5-9 Willie Wade, from the Akron Central-

Howe state semifinalist team last season.

"We're pretty much like last year," said Siegfert, a 17-year coaching veteran. "We've got a little more bench and balance this time."

Robinson, a second team all-state selection, averages 18 points and 15 rebounds and Wade 14 points.

There are two father-son combinations in the state tournament. The Whites for Celina and Indian Valley South mentor Charles Huggins and his son, 6-4 Bob. The Associated Press state Class A player of the year.

Two coaches have won Ohio tournament titles. Huggins did it at Strasburg in 1967 and Hillard at Lincoln Heights.

All sessions in 13,489-seat St. John Arena, except the Class AA and A title contests, are expected to be sellouts.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Moss and children Ron, Dan, Sonya and Jared of Jefferson, Md., were visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Moss Sr. from Thursday until Monday. This was three-month-old Jared's first meeting with his grandparents and other relatives.

Saturday evening they were William Moss Jr. and daughters at their home in Tarlton. Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. James Hottinger, Tammi and David of Frankfort, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wood, Doug, Mont, Robin, Max and Dougie, Miss Pat Johnson, Miss Lynn Henn and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hardman and Tim.

Attending the 50-50 Club last Tuesday were Mrs. Wayne Delong, Mrs. Richard Delong, Mrs. Fred Duve, all of Kingston, Miss Patricia Hartsock of Circleville and Mrs. Fred Jones of Washington C. H.

Mrs. Phillip Davis entertained her Sewing Club last Wednesday afternoon at her home on the County Line Road. Present were Mrs. Walter Brown, Mrs. Ada Dyer, Mrs. Roy Seymour, Mrs. Lucy Rundels, Mrs. Laura Kempton, Mrs. Carrie Crago, Mrs. Fred Heinzelman, Mrs. Francine Yapple, Mrs. Kenneth Rudel, Mrs. Eleanor Winget, Mrs. Don McNeal, all of Chillicothe; Mrs. James Davis and Shawn of Circleville and Mrs. James Seymour. Mrs. Rundels was a new member this month.

Mrs. Phillip Davis left Thursday to spend a few days with her mother, Mrs. Dwight Lanman at her home in Richmond, Ind.

Mrs. William S. Rhoades is spending a few days this week at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Locke in Canton.

Billy Casper Ready To Play At New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Billy Casper, rested and ready after a month of fishing, makes his return to the tour this week as one of the top attractions in the $125,000 Greater New Orleans Open Golf Tournament.

"I've only played five or six times since I've been off," Casper said before a practice round Wednesday on the 7,080-yard, par 72 Lakewood Country Club course.

"I spent most of the time just fishing, a minimum of three times a week."

"I just got away and forgot about it. I think it's the best thing I could possibly have done."

Casper, who has collected more than 40 tour titles and is one of the game's three $1 million prize winners, skipped the entire Florida swing and has been off the tour for four weeks.

He's won only once in the last 18 months. In six starts this season, Casper has missed the cut twice and has won only $9,393, most of it off a fourth place finish in the Bob Hope Desert Classic.

Plagued by playing problems, he'd become uncharacteristically grim, tight-lipped and short-tempered before breaking away for a rest.

"I feel much, much better now, rested and relaxed—and a little fat," Casper said.

As usual, he ranks high on the list of favorites for the $25,000 first prize in this 72-hole event that begins Thursday.

The top choices, however, are Jack Nicklaus, South African Gary Player and defending champion Frank Beard. Arnold Palmer and Lee Trevino are not competing.

Tapped Linc Wins Feature At Latonia

FLORENCE, Ky. (AP) — Tapped Linc, with Rod Madrigal aboard, jumped to the lead at the gate and won the $5,000 featured eighth race at Latonia by 10 lengths Tuesday night.

The winner covered the five furlongs in 1:01 and paid $6.80, $3.80 and $2.80. Makin Tracks was second, $4.80 and $4.00 and He's a Bird, third, $3.40.

Eternal Song and After-flashing combined 11-8 in the daily double for $34.80.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Arnold and children Kendra and Keith were hosts at a family gathering Sunday to celebrate the birthday of Mrs. Arnold's sister, Mrs. Charles Browning (Becky Shepard). Guests were Mr. Browning and son Todd, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Jackson, Mrs. Carolyn King, James Reber and Miss Jo Daddore of Columbus.

Earlier Mrs. Reber, Mrs. King, Mrs. Jackson, Miss Daddore and Mr. Browning and Todd went to Nelsonville's York High School for the capping ceremonies of the Southeast School of Practical Nursing of which Becky is a member. Another member of the class was Mrs. Marc Conaway (Melissa Search), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Search. The girls enrolled in September and have another six months of study to complete the course. Additional afternoon callers were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Arnold.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Miller were Sunday dinner guests of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Miller at their home in Dayton.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Snyder and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Martin of Cedar Hill brought a carry-in supper and spent Sunday evening with Mrs. Ted Moore to celebrate her birthday.

Miss Mary Corcoran, bride-elect of Mr. Tom Harp, was the guest of honor when Mrs. Nancy Albert invited a few of their high school classmates to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Minor, Saturday night. They were Mrs. Nancy Carroll Brown, Mrs. Janet Vollmar Jones, Miss Martha Corcoran and Miss Judy Parsons. Miss Corcoran received a personal gift from the group.

Mrs. Michael Wright entertained the Isabella Thoburn Circle last Thursday night with Mrs. Larry Walls assisting hostess. The devotions from "Decision Magazine" was by Mrs. Fred Duve and Mrs. Ed Fugge had the program based on the book by Jim Bishop, "The Day Christ Died," but told as though Mary was the narrator.

After the Secret Sister Report, Mrs. Carroll Minor, Mrs. John B. Thomas and Mrs. Elizabeth, committee of the month for visit to the rest home, gave their report. Mrs. Wayne Delong and Mrs. Fred Duve are the April visiting committee. Mrs. Willard McCarty announced that she had completed new covers for the divider screens and the Circle's next project will be to "houseclean" the kitchen and rest rooms at the church after Easter. Next month they are asked to bring food donations for Anchor House and Miss Sunny Rhinehart of Chillicothe will be a guest. Mrs. Dwight Davis and Mrs. Harry Edwards will be the hostesses.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Flugge and children, Robin, Sharon, Ellen and David last Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Noe, Mr. and Mrs. William Hottle, Brenda, Jeff and Andy of Pickerington and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Perdue, Wayne and Vicki of Sunbury. The occasion was Robin's fifteenth birthday which was March 10 as was her cousin, Vicki Perdue's, Vicki was two.

Mrs. Bert Jackson was hostess at a luncheon for 1953 Matrons of District 23 of the Order of Eastern Star, Saturday at the L & K restaurant near Circleville.

Mr. and Mrs. Loring E. Hill and Miss Gertrude Senff returned home Monday from a week's stay at the home of Miss Senff's brother-in-law and sister Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cunningham in Ft. Pearce, Mo.

Mrs. Carroll Minor spent the day Monday with her mother and sister, Mrs. J. W. Fox and Mrs. Claude Crawford at the latter's home near Whisler.

St. John's Defeats Titans In NIT Quarter-Final Tilt

NEW YORK (AP) — St. John's played the first half for the Rev. Henry Honsberger and the second half for Mel Davis.

The double dedication was disastrous for Oral Roberts' basketball team Tuesday night.

"I know it sounds corny, but we played the game for those guys," said St. John's Coach Frank Mulzoff after his New York favorites slammed the high-scoring Titans 94-78 in the quarter-finals of the 35th National Invitation Tournament.

The Redmen made it into Thursday night's semifinals at Madison Square Garden on an emotional high after Niagara upset Princeton 65-60.

Mulzoff said the contest was at first dedicated to Rev. Honsberger, who was very sick in a New York hospital.

Davis, the team's top player, started strongly but suffered a pulled tendon in his right knee deep in the first half and had to be carried from the game on a stretcher.

It was then that the team decided to dedicate the second half to their fallen star.

"It was one of Mel's best games until that point," said Mulzoff. "I've never seen him jump higher in a game."

The powerhouse forward scored 12 points and had 12 rebounds in just about 14 minutes. His last bucket was a crashing lay-in that gave St. John's a commanding 37-23 advantage.

Davis spilled to the floor, his face snarled in pain. He was taken to a hospital, where it was revealed that he would be a "doubtful" starter for the semifinal match against Niagara.

The two Vincentian schools will play the nightcap of Thursday's doubleheader after Jacksonville meets Maryland in the opener.

"If Davis doesn't play Thursday, it'll be like hell on earth for us," said Mulzoff.

But even without their star, The Redmen did okay Tuesday night. They established a stubborn defense right away and held the nation's highest-scoring team to a mere 29 points in the first half. The Titans' final total was 28 points under their average.

Phoenix Suns Top Portland; Win 160-128

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Arizona is a desert state that is supposed to get cool at night. The Phoenix Suns are a basketball team that likes to get hot at night.

Tuesday night they were hot. The Suns broke a team scoring record in whipping the Portland Trailblazers 160-128 in their National Basketball Association game.

It was, in the venacular, "a balanced attack." Clem Haskins scored 28, Paul Silas 24, Connie Hawkins 23, Neal Walk 19 and Charlie Scott and Dick Van Arsdale 18 each. They scored 83 points in the first half, a team record, then broke the old point total of 146 points, which was set in 1969 against San Diego.

In all the scoring, Portland forward Sidney Wicks became the eighth NBA rookie to score over 2,000 points in a single season. He led the Trailblazers with 31 points.

Elsewhere in the NBA, Atlanta defeated Philadelphia 117-

111, Buffalo topped Baltimore 114-100, Los Angeles trimmed Chicago 109-104, Detroit beat Cincinnati 120-117 and Milwaukee whipped Houston 111-94.

Atlanta clinched a Central Division playoff berth with its victory. The Hawks trailed Philadelphia by 17 points in the second quarter but came back behind the shooting of Pete Maravich and Lou Hudson, who hit 26 and 36 points, respectively. Billy Cunningham had 29 for the 76ers while Bill Bridges added 20.

Jabbar Is Selected Top NBA Player

NEW YORK (AP) — Kareem Jabbar of the Milwaukee Bucks has been named Most Valuable Player in the National Basketball Association for the 1971-72 season.

It was the Milwaukee center's second award in three professional years. As Lew Alcindor, he won the honor last year as he led the Bucks to the NBA championship. The Bucks already have clinched the Midwest Division this season.

Nick Mileti Presents New Offer For Tribe

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — Sports tycoon Nick Mileti was back in Florida today to toss a new financial pitch at American League owners who previously balked at Mileti's offer to purchase the Cleveland Indians baseball team.

"We will present them (the owners) an amended application," said Mileti as he boarded a plane in Cleveland Tuesday night. He refused, however, to discuss what the application would contain.

Kingston News Report

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Moss and children Ron, Dan, Sonya and Jared of Jefferson, Md., were visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Moss Sr. from Thursday until Monday. This was three-month-old Jared's first meeting with his grandparents and other relatives.

Saturday evening they were William Moss Jr. and daughters at their home in Tarlton. Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. James Hottinger, Tammi and David of Frankfort, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wood, Doug, Mont, Robin, Max and Dougie, Miss Pat Johnson, Miss Lynn Henn and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hardman and Tim.

Attending the 50-50 Club Tuesday were Mrs. Wayne Delong, Mrs. Richard Delong, Mrs. Fred Duve, all of Kingston, Miss Patricia Hartsock of Circleville and Mrs. Fred Jones of Washington C. H.

Mrs. Phillip Davis entertained her Sewing Club last Wednesday afternoon at her home on the County Line Road. Present were Mrs. Walter Brown, Mrs. Ada Dyer, Mrs. Roy Seymour, Mrs. Lucy Rundels, Mrs. Laura Kempton, Mrs. Carrie Crago, Mrs. Fred Heinzelman, Mrs. Francine Yapple, Mrs. Kenneth Rudel, Mrs. Eleanor Winzet, Mrs. Don McNeal, all of Chillicothe; Mrs. James Davis and Shawn of Circleville and Mrs. James Seymour. Mrs. Rundels was a new member this month.

Mrs. Phillip Davis left Thursday to spend a few days with her mother, Mrs. Dwight Lanman at her home in Richmond, Ind.

Mrs. William S. Rhoades is spending a few days this week at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Locke in Canton.

Billy Casper Ready To Play At New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Billy Casper, rested and ready after a month of fishing, makes his return to the tour this week as one of the top attractions in the $125,000 Greater New Orleans Open Golf Tournament.

"I've only played five or six times since I've been off," Casper said before a practice round Wednesday on the 7,080-yard, par 72 Lakewood Country Club course.

"I spent most of the time just fishing, a minimum of three times a week."

"I just got away and forgot about it. I think it's the best thing I could possibly have done."

Casper, who has collected more than 40 tour titles and is one of the game's three $1 million prize winners, skipped the entire Florida swing and has been off the tour for four weeks.

He's won only once in the last 18 months. In six starts this season, Casper has missed the cut twice and has won only $9,393, most of it off a seventh place finish in the Bob Hope Desert Classic.

Plagued by playing problems, he'd become uncharacteristically grim, tight-lipped and short-tempered before breaking away for a rest.

"I feel much, much better now, rested and relaxed—and a little fat," Casper said.

As usual, he ranks high on the list of favorites for the $25,000 first prize in this 72-hole event that begins Thursday.

The top choices, however, are Jack Nicklaus, South African Gary Player and defending champion Frank Beard. Arnold Palmer and Lee Trevino are not competing.

Tapped Linc Wins Feature At Latonia

FLORENCE, Ky. (AP) — Tapped Linc, with Rod Madrigal aboard, jumped to the lead at the gate and won the $5,000 featured eighth race at Latonia by 10 lengths Tuesday night.

The winner covered the five furlongs in 1:01 and paid $6.80, $3.80 and $2.80. Makin' Tracks was second, $4.80 and $4.00 and He's a Bird, third, $3.40.

Eternal Song and After-flashing combined 11-8 in the daily double for $34.80.

The crowd of 4,154 wagered $427,115.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Arnold and children Kendra and Keith were hosts at a family gathering Sunday to celebrate the birthday of Mrs. Arnold's sister, Mrs. Charles Browning (Becky Shepard). Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bert Jackson, Mrs. Carolyn King, James Reber and Miss Jo Doddroe of Columbus.

Earlier Mrs. Reber, Mrs. King, Mrs. Jackson, Miss Doddroe and Mr. Browning and Todd went to Nelsonville's York High School for the capping ceremonies of the Southeast School of Practical Nursing of which Becky is a member. Another member of the class was Mrs. Marc Conway (Melissa Search), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Search. The girls enrolled in September and have another six months of study to complete the course. Additional afternoon callers were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Arnold.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Miller were Sunday dinner guests of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Miller at their home in Dayton.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Snyder and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Martin of Cedar Hill brought a carry-in supper and spent Sunday evening with Mrs. Ted Moore to celebrate her birthday.

Miss Mary Corcoran, bride-elect of Mr. Tom Harp, was the guest of honor when Mrs. Nancy Albert invited a few of their high school classmates to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Minor, Saturday night. They were Mrs. Nancy Carroll Brown, Mrs. Janet Vollmar Jones, Miss Martha Corcoran and Miss Judy Parsons. Miss Corcoran received a personal gift from the group.

Mrs. Michael Wright entertained the Isabella Thoburn Circle last Thursday night with Mrs. Larry Walls assisting hostess. The devotions from "Decision Magazine" was by Mrs. Fred Duve and Mrs. Ed Fugge had the program based on the book by Jim Bishop, "The Day Christ Died," but told as though Mary was the narrator.

After the Secret Sister Report, Mrs. Carroll Minor, Mrs. John B. Thomas and Mrs. Elizabeth, committee of the month for visit to the rest home, gave their report. Mrs. Wayne Delong and Mrs. Fred Duve are the April visiting committee. Mrs. Willard McCarty announced that she had completed new covers for the divider screens and the Circle's next project will be to "houseclean" the kitchen and rest rooms at the church after Easter. Next month they are asked to bring food donations for Anchor House and Miss Sunny Rhinehart of Chillicothe will be a guest. Mrs. Dwight Davis and Mrs. Harry Edwards will be the hostesses.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Fluge and children, Robin, Sharon, Ellen and David last Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Noe, Mr. and Mrs. William Hottle, Brenda, Jeff and Andy of Pickerington and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Perdue, Wayne and Vicki of Sunbury. The occasion was Robin's fifteenth birthday which was March 10 as was her cousin, Vicki Perdue's, Vicki was two.

St. John's Defeats Titans In NIT Quarter-Final Tilt

NEW YORK (AP) — St. John's played the first half for the Rev. Henry Honsberger and the second half for Mel Davis.

The double dedication was disastrous for Oral Roberts' basketball team Tuesday night.

"I know it sounds corny, but we played the game for those guys," said St. John's Coach Frank Mulzoff after his New York favorites slammed the high-scoring Titans 94-78 in the quarter-finals of the 35th National Invitation Tournament.

The Redmen made it into Thursday night's semifinals at Madison Square Garden on an emotional high after Niagara upset Princeton 65-60.

Mulzoff said the contest was at first dedicated to Rev. Honsberger, who was very sick in a New York hospital.

Davis, the team's top player, started strongly but suffered a pulled tendon in his right knee deep in the first half and had to be carried from the game on a stretcher.

It was then that the team decided to dedicate the second half to their fallen star.

"It was one of Mel's best games until that point," said Mulzoff. "I've never seen him jump higher in a game."

The powerhouse forward scored 12 points and had 12 rebounds in just about 14 minutes. His last bucket was a crashing lay-in that gave St. John's a commanding 37-23 advantage.

Davis spilled to the floor, his face snarled in pain. He was taken to a hospital, where it was revealed that he would be a "doubtful" starter for the semifinal match against Niagara.

The two Vincentian schools will play the nightcap of Thursday's doubleheader after Jacksonville meets Maryland in the opener.

"If Davis doesn't play Thursday, it'll be like hell on earth for us," said Mulzoff.

But even without their star, The Redmen did okay Tuesday night. They established a stubborn defense right away and held the nation's highest-scoring team to a mere 29 points in the first half. The Titans' final total was 28 points under their average.

Phoenix Suns Top Portland; Win 160-128

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Arizona is a desert state that is supposed to get cool at night. The Phoenix Suns are a basketball team that likes to get hot at night.

Tuesday night they were hot. The Suns broke a team scoring record in whipping the Portland Trailblazers 160-128 in their National Basketball Association game.

It was, in the venacular, "a balanced attack." Clem Haskins scored 28, Paul Silas 24, Connie Hawkins 23, Neal Walk 19 and Charlie Scott and Dick Van Arsdale 18 each. They scored 83 points in the first half, a team record, then broke the old point total of 146 points, which was set in 1969 against San Diego.

In all the scoring, Portland forward Sidney Wicks became the eighth NBA rookie to score over 2,000 points in a single season. He led the Trailblazers with 31 points.

Elsewhere in the NBA, Atlanta defeated Philadelphia 117-

111, Buffalo topped Baltimore 114-100, Los Angeles trimmed Chicago 109-104, Detroit beat Cincinnati 120-117 and Milwaukee whipped Houston 111-94.

Atlanta clinched a Central Division playoff berth with its victory. The Hawks trailed Philadelphia by 17 points in the second quarter but came back behind the shooting of Pete Maravich and Lou Hudson, who hit 26 and 36 points, respectively.

Billy Cunningham had 29 for the 76ers while Bill Bridges added 20.

Jabbar Is Selected Top NBA Player

NEW YORK (AP) — Kareem Jabbar of the Milwaukee Bucks has been named Most Valuable Player in the National Basketball Association for the 1971-72 season.

It was the Milwaukee center's second award in three professional years. As Lew Alcindor, he won the honor last year as he led the Bucks to the NBA championship. The Bucks already have clinched the Midwest Division this season.

Nick Mileti Presents New Offer For Tribe

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — Sports tycoon Nick Mileti was back in Florida today to toss a new financial pitch at American League owners who previously balked at Mileti offer to purchase the Cleveland Indians baseball team.

"We will present them (the owners) an amended application," said Mileti as he boarded a plane in Cleveland Tuesday night. He refused, however, to discuss what the application would contain.

Guards Angered At Prison Strike Concessions

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

An inmate strike at the Ohio Penitentiary ended today while similar protests were in progress at the Chillicothe and London correctional facilities.

Meanwhile, penitentiary guards, angered over concessions made to striking prisoners and reportedly threatening a walkout, were to meet this morning with Teamsters Union officials.

And a member of the governor's Task Force on Corrections blamed the prison troubles on the administration's failure to act on the group's recommendations.

State Corrections Commissioner Bennett Cooper and penitentiary Warden Harold Cardwell announced Tuesday night they had conceded to some prisoners' demands to end a two-day strike at the old facility in Columbus.

They said the changes agreed to had been planned anyway after the prison population is transferred to the new penitentiary at Lucasville later this year.

The acting superintendent of the Chillicothe facility, Michael Marsino, planned to meet with representatives of the institute's 950 prisoners today to discuss grievances that prompted a work and hunger strike Tuesday.

Marsino said grievances presented to him at a meeting with inmates Tuesday were similar to those of prisoners at the penitentiary. "But I think we have a few more," he said, declining to discuss them specifically.

At London, 900 of the 1,300 inmates went on a sitdown strike Tuesday. "The 300-man honor dorm and about 100 others are working," said Supt. E. B. Haskins.

Table Tennis Matches Set

DETROIT (AP) — A Michigan Sports Hall of Fame official says that the table tennis team from the People's Republic of China will play at Cobo Arena April 14.

Commissioner W. Nicholas Kerbawy said Tuesday "the best table tennis players in the country" would be brought to Detroit to face the Chinese but said the visitors "will carry us for awhile, and then they'll beat our brains out."

Detroit will be the "focal point" of the Chinese team's one-week visit to the United States, Kerbawy said, "because of Mr. Graham Steenhoven (president of the U.S. Table Tennis Association)."

Steenhoven led an official goodwill delegation of the American table tennis team to mainland China last year. Steenhoven received confirmation of the return visit this week in a cable from Song Chung, acting president of the Table Tennis Association of the People's Republic of China.

The Chinese players are expected to stay in Detroit for three weeks, during which time they will sightsee and be feted by in meetings with leaders of business, education and government.

He said the prisoners refused to leave their quarters when they were supposed to report for work after lunch.

Guards at the penitentiary also were upset at learning that a pay raise under legislation enacted by the General Assembly may not be as big as they had expected.

John McDonald, legislative aide to the governor, said Tuesday the guards apparently will lose the 12 to 15 cents an hour "hazard" pay they have been receiving since two riots at the prison in 1968. It would come off an expected 50 cents an hour boost in the pay bill.

Toledo Hit By Holdups, Abductions

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Four service station attendants were abducted and robbed in a matter of hours early today in Toledo, and one is still missing, Toledo Police reported.

Police said the first attendant disappeared about 2 a.m. The attendant, whose identity has not been disclosed, is still missing.

Police said an intensive search for the missing man is underway.

Three other attendants were robbed, then forced into a car at shotgun point between 3:30 and 4:30 a.m., according to police.

Two reportedly were forced to ride in the trunk of the abductor's car, while the third was forced to ride in the front seat, beside the abductor. The three were released unharmed at Side Cut Park near the Maumee River. The car was recovered nearby.

Just north of Toledo, Michigan State Police are searching for a 68-year-old beer store proprietor whom they believe may have been abducted Tuesday night.

Customers told police they walked into Earl Ludlow's store in Temperance, Mich., about 9:30 p.m. and discovered the cash register open and empty. Ludlow was missing, although his car was still parked outside.

White Motor Sets Layoffs; No Engines

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — White Motor Co. announced Tuesday that it will lay off two-thirds of its Cleveland work force next week because of a strike at its diesel engine supplier.

White said its largest production line will be closed today, affecting 200 persons. It said operations involving 2,000 other employees will be closed by Monday, leaving White with virtually no production workers in Cleveland.

The layoffs were ordered because of the strike begun March 2 by 5,600 members of Diesel Worker Union at the Cummins Engine Co., Inc., at Columbus, Ind. Talks between the union and company broke off Tuesday, but a meeting with a federal mediator has been scheduled for Friday.

White said it would resume production in Cleveland when Cummins is able to start delivering engines again.

Plants in Portland, Ore., Pomona, Calif., Indianapolis, Ind., and Vancouver, B.C., which manufacture White's Freightliner truck will also close next Monday. Affected will be a total of 2,000 persons. The plants are part of another company which manufactures trucks sold by White.

White said its Autocar plant in Exton, Pa., which employs about 380 production workers, has enough engines to maintain production until the end of the month.

It said its plant at Kelowna, B.C., has enough engines to last for eight more weeks. The plant, which produces White Western Star trucks, employs 120.

Bank Robbery Trial Slated

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — George Hazelwood Jr. will stand trial in U.S. District Court at Lexington April 4, charged with robbing the Salt Lick Deposit Bank of $16,500 last Nov. 15.

Hazelwood, a former Morehead State University graduate student from Carlisle, Ohio, pleaded innocent to the charge Tuesday.

He was apprehended by federal agents the day of the robbery.

Lottery Question To Be On Ballot

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A proposal to lift Ohio's constitutional ban on lotteries will be put to voters in the May 2 primary election.

Voters also will decide on a batch of other amendments proposed by the Constitutional Revision Commission if a joint House-Senate conference committee can resolve differences in their bills by Friday, the deadline for getting the amendments on the ballot.

The Senate approved the lotteries amendment 23-8 Tuesday after debate by anti-gambling members and proponents who said a state lottery would produce additional revenue for the general fund.

"If we are going to finance our state with gambling money, why not go all the way?" asked Sen. Howard Cook, R-4 Toledo. "Why not numbers?"

The measure originally would have lifted all prohibitions against gambling, but later was modified to deal only with lotteries.

Sen. Tennyson Guyer, R-2 Findlay, warned that the legislature was inviting the "syndicate and organized rackets into Ohio."

Sen. Morris Jackson, D-21 Cleveland, told the legislators they should be realistic. "We've got to ease the tax burden of the people of the state," he said. "We might as well collect some additional revenue through a legalized lottery."

The amendment's sponsor, Sen. Ronald Mottl, D-24 Parma, estimated on the basis of lotteries in other states that income from state-sanctioned gambling could approach $50 million the first year.

If approved at the polls, current restrictions against lotteries will be stripped from the constitution beginning Jan. 1, 1973, freeing the state to establish and operate a lottery system.

The package of other amendments approved by the Senate

25-5 is designed to modernize operation and administration of the legislature.

Included in the House-passed package was a provision that the governor and lieutenant governor be elected to office as a team rather than running separately as they do now. That would avoid the current situation in which members of different political parties hold the two posts.

man who confronted him. Bell, Hayes and Robert Holliday, 22, apparently escaped to Dayton, after forcing a Cincinnati cab driver to take them there.

The two accused murderers remaining among the prisoners at large were identified as Cleophus Evans, 23, of Cincinnati, held in connection with the fatal shooting of a novelty store operator during a holdup, and Charles Reed, 29, of Cincinnati, charged with the fatal shooting of his brother-in-law.

The Cincinnati chief of police said it will be "twice as hard" to catch the remaining 15 prisoners as it was the first time they were taken and asked help from the public.

"First of all," said Chief Carl Goodin, noting the slow progress in rounding up the felons who escaped, "these people are charged with very serious crimes ranging from receiving stolen goods to first-degree murder."

"It took months of work to catch some of them to start with, and it will be twice as hard to recapture them after they escaped."

Chief Goodin appealed to the public, and acquaintances of the escapees in particular, to notify police if the fugitives are seen. He said the escapees had at least a half-hour start before police were notified of the break.

But the Senate amended the measure to require that candidates for each office run separately in the primary, with the top vote-getters from each party for each office then forming a team ticket for the fall race.

Some other highlights of the amendment package:

—Payment of allowances for "reasonable and necessary expenses" to members of the general Assembly.

—New prohibitions against a lawmaker holding any other public office while serving his term in the General Assembly.

—A requirement that the General Assembly meet annually. Only biennial sessions are required now.

—Permission for the presiding officer of each chamber of the legislature to call a special session. That authority rests now only with the governor.

—Permission for the governor to assign duties in the executive branch of government to the lieutenant governor, and for the legislature to prescribe powers for him. The provision eliminates the lieutenant governor's traditional role as presiding officer of the Senate.

In other action, the Senate concurred in House amendments to legislation that would:

—Require issuance of identification cards to persons designated to receive welfare payments under general relief or Aid to Dependent Children programs. The purpose of the measure, backers argue, is to reduce theft and fraud by insuring that assistance checks be both received and cashed by authorized recipients only.

—Authorize the state to sell for $67,900 a 5.4-acre parcel of land in Warrensville Township, Cuyahoga County, to the county

Escapee Captured

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—A Pennsylvania teen-ager who escaped Friday from the Ohio Reformatory at Mansfield was arrested by Cleveland police Tuesday during a search for an alleged rapist and robber.

Police said Michael Cardine, 19, of Carbine, Pa., was arrested in a west side rooming house as they searched for the assailant of an 18-year-old west side woman.

Cardine was part of an Ohio Reformatory program which permitted him to attend social, cultural and educational events in the company of private citizens.

He allegedly abducted a Mansfield couple Friday night and forced them to drive to a Middleburg Heights motel where he tied them up and drove off with their car.

Cardine had been sentenced to the reformatory in June, 1970, for delinquency and rape of a 22-year-old Cleveland Heights woman.

Beards May Present Occupational Hazard

WASHINGTON (AP) — A team of government scientists says beards or mod sideburns can present an occupational hazard to industrial workers who must wear masks on the job.
